McGill Faculty Club Newsletter

Many people wear artificial poppies on their clothes in the weeks before Remembrance Day. Red poppies symbolize the memory of those who died and white poppies campaign for non-military interventions in conflict situations. On November 11, special church services are organized. These often include the playing of "The Last Post", a reading of the fourth verse of the 'Ode of Remembrance' and two minutes silence at 11:00am. After the service, wreaths are laid at local war memorials.

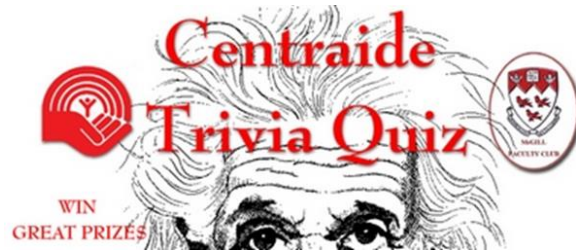

The Faculty club hosted the very popular Oyster night buffet on Thursday October 20th; the evening was a great success. Special thank you to all the members that attended the event, your continued support is truly appreciated.

Bridge: Tuesdays, November 8th & 22nd in the Maude Abbott Room, 1:15 p.m. to 4:15 p.m.

As usual, all bridge players are invited to the Faculty Club. The event takes place on Tuesday every two weeks and new participants are always welcome. Organised by the McGill Committee for Retired Professors, the game nights are perfectly combined with a drink and a snack during matches.
