

St. Mary's Hospital

St. Mary's Hospital is a community hospital which offers a full range of services. There are 6 palliative care beds integrated on the oncology unit. The resident will be expected to cover some of those palliative care patients, as well as act as a palliative and pain consultant on other wards, the oncology out-patients and the emergency room. The palliative care resident will also have an opportunity to teach more junior residents.