

Montreal Children's Hospital

The MCH has a well-established interdisciplinary palliative consultation team that serves the inpatient wards and clinics, NICU/PICU and ER, as well as providing home care.

The MCH has active medical, surgical and radiation oncology services. The resident can opt to do one month of selective with a paediatric palliative care specialist in this setting.