

2017 Global Child Health Skills Conference
Global Child Health Program
McGill Department of Pediatrics
November 9-11, 2017

Conference Program (preliminary)

November 9, 8am-5pm: Pediatric Ultrasound for Resource-Limited Settings

Participants in this workshop will become familiar with the basic applications of bedside ultrasound in the diagnosis of several conditions common in resource-limited settings.

- FAST, lung, vascular access, head
- Lead Instructors: Dr. Peter Steinmetz & Dr. Ricardo Faingold
- McGill Simulation Centre

November 10, 8am-12pm: Helping Babies Breathe (HBB)

An abridged train the trainers' workshop of a neonatal resuscitation curriculum developed for resource-limited circumstances.

- Open to those with previous NRP certification
- Lead instructors: Dr. Andrea Hunter, Dr. Tobey Audcent, Dr. Virginie Clavel & Dr. Julie Hébert
- McGill Simulation Centre

November 10, 12:30pm-4:30pm: Emergency Triage, Assessment & Treatment

An introductory workshop to ETAT for health care professionals interested in providing care for acutely ill children in resource-limited settings, and implementing triage and emergency treatment systems in resource-limited settings.

- Open to those with previous PALS certification
- Lead instructors: Dr. Jennifer Turnbull & Sherri Grady, RN
- McGill Simulation Centre

November 10, 5pm-7pm: Global Child Health 5 à 7

- Keynote address: Dr. Jennifer Kasper, Division of Global, Massachusetts General Hospital and Board Member of Doctors for Global Health (DGH).
- "Speed-dating" session among health care professionals and groups involved in Global Health
- Location TBD

November 11, 8:30am-4:30pm: Multiple workshops related to work in Resource-Limited Settings

Participants will learn multiple hands-on skills useful for work in resource-limited settings.

- Sedation, Ethics, Nursing skills and Creative solutions for limited materials
- Lead instructors: Dr. Raphael Paquin (Sedation), Dr. Virginie Clavel & Dr. Gillian Morantz (Ethics), Julia Garland, RN & Jody Tuck, RN (Nursing Skills), Dr. Jennifer Kasper & Dr. Julia Von Oettingen (Creative Solutions)
- Montreal Children's Hospital, Room TBD

Register for one or more of the sessions at: <https://global-child-health-skills-conference.eventbrite.ca>
Spots are limited!

For information, contact Gillian Morantz: gillian.morantz@mcgill.ca