

Instructor needed for GEOG 316 (Political Geography)

Political Geography is a mid-level lecture course that covers core components of the subfield. Topics and foci include: the state, nations and national identity, space and power, ethnic and racial identity, political representation, electoral systems, and other topics of the lecturer's areas of expertise. Applicants should have a PhD in hand, or be in the later stages of completing a PhD in Geography, preferably with an active research interest in at least one of the course topics.

Salary: $8,220.00 (salary may increase due to new collective agreement)

Term: Fall 2018 semester

Qualifications: Senior PhD student or PhD in Geography or related field. Must show evidence of experience in Geography.

The University may, at its discretion, assign the person of its choice to give this Course/Teaching.

Please apply by e-mail with a letter of interest explaining how you think the course should be designed and a CV to Nancy Secondo (nancy.secondo@mcgill.ca), Administrative Assistant, Department of Geography, McGill University by March 5, 2018.