

GeoSpectives

The McGill Geographic Speaker Series

2005-2006

Fall 2005 Program

September 2th

Dr. Brad Coombes

*School of Geography and Environmental Sciences, University of Auckland
New Zealand*

Defending community? State ambivalence to indigeneity and self-determination in natural resource management - Ngai Te Ipu's restoration of Lake Whakaki, New Zealand

September 16th

Subhasis Dutta

Department of Civil Engineering, Indian Institute of Technology, Guwahati- India

Rainfall Runoff Modeling in Rice Agriculture dominated Watersheds

September 30th

Dr. Jeffrey A. Cardille

Université de Québec à Montréal

Understanding patterns in landscapes: what can METALAND tell us?

October 4th

Special Panel on Hurricane Katrina

Moderators:

Garry Petterson, Gail Chmura, Nancy Ross & Renee Sieber

Department of Geography, McGill University

October 14th

Dr. Emily Gilbert

University of Toronto

Biopolitics and the Security and Prosperity Agreement of North America

November 11th

Dr. Kevin Schwartzman

Montreal Chest Institute (MUCH)

The GIS of TB? Geographic Information and Tuberculosis

November 25 th

Dr. Jon Unruh

Department of Geography, McGill University

Land tenure and the peace process in Sierra Leone

Fridays, 12:30 - 14:30, Burnside Hall 426

Convenors: Raja Sengupta, Jonathan Seaquist; Diane Poon, Heidi Zunn & Karina Benessaiah (GGS), Yolande Pottie-Sherman & Nicholas Phelps (MUGS)

Funded by: McGill Research Grants Office, Department of Geography and  . With assistance from  Geography Graduate Society McGill University