Part time Instructor in GEOG 216 (Geography of the World Economy)

Position: We require a part-time instructor to cover approximately one-half of GEOG 216 Geography of the World Economy. The course lecturer would be responsible for 12 to 14 lectures covering topics mainly related to recent patterns and trends in the global economy; Fordism and post-Fordism; industrial organization and agglomeration; urbanization; the final financial crisis; and economy-environment linkages. The course lecture would work in collaboration with the other instructor in the course. The successful applicant would also be responsible with the other instructor for coordinating two mid-term and one final examination for the course.

Salary: $4,110.00 (salary may increase due to new collective agreement)

Term: Fall 2019 semester

Qualifications: A PhD in human geography (or related field) with a good understanding of economic geography. Be a good communicator and have good course management skills. Experience with teaching undergraduate level economic geography is a definite asset.

The University may, at its discretion, assign the person of its choice to give this Course/Teaching.

Please apply by e-mail with a letter of interest explaining how you think the course should be designed and a CV to Marisa Mastroberardino marisa.mastroberardino@mcgill.ca Administrative Assistant, Department of Geography, McGill University by June 18, 2018.