

The Canadian Institutes of Health Research (CIHR) Institute of Infection and Immunity (III)

Invites you to attend its
MEET-THE-COMMUNITY EVENT

THURSDAY, MAY 30, 2019

3:00 – 5:00 pm Speaker presentations

5:00 – 6:00 pm Reception and Networking*

Light refreshments will be served*

McGILL NEW RESIDENTS HALL BALLROOM B

Dr. Mélanie Dieudé

Université de Montréal

The vesicular legacy of dying cells: importance in autoimmunity and rejection

Dr. Laurent Chatel-Chaix

Institut national de la recherche scientifique – Institut Armand Frappier

The hijacking of cytoplasmic resources by dengue and Zika viruses: A viral extreme makeover

Dr. Cédric Yansouni

McGill University Health Centre

Stopping Syphilis Transmission in Arctic communities through Rapid Diagnostic Testing: Moving beyond the standard of care

Dr. Nathalie Grandvaux

Université de Montréal

The threat of RNA viruses: generating knowledge about host-virus interactions to identify potential targets for new "host-targeted antivirals"