Class of 2020

GRADUATION PARTY PACK

MADE

by McGill

It's your day. Convocation is here!

Wherever you are in the world, you are part of the resilient, motivated and accomplished McGill Class of 2020. Be proud of your achievements. It's time to celebrate you, with a little help from your fellow graduates, family and friends.

DECORATE

Paint the town (well, your home) McGill red.

SHOW YOUR PRIDE

Wear what makes you feel proud - make your own graduation cap and tassel.

CELEBRATE

Invite your family and friends to tune in to your Virtual Ceremony to see your name "in lights" and share your excitement online - it's time to celebrate your accomplishment!

CONGRATS, GRAD!

You're officially a member of the McGill Alumni Association!

Decorate.

BACKGROUND DECOR

Set the mood for this momentous occasion by decorating, McGill-style. Print, cut, and use these decorations below to make the day more special for you. Cover your front door, bedroom door, bathroom mirror, mailbox, window or any place where you feel like showcasing your McGill pride. Your friends and family - whether near or far - can join in the fun, too!

PHOTO PROPS

For bonus fun, hang some decorations on a blank wall or curtain to create an at-home photobooth. Use some leftover gift wrap to make a festive background. Create photo props using the cutouts below, taping them to a pen or Popsicle stick, and then share on social using the hashtags #McGillGrad2020, #McGillVirtualConvocation, #McGillGrad and #McGillAlumni.

Show your pride.

What's your convocation dress code? Whether you dress to impress or opt for some classic McGill swag and jeans, wear what makes you feel like the accomplished graduate you are. Take an obligatory selfie and share your look on social using the hashtags #McGillGrad2020, #McGillVirtualConvocation, #McGillGrad and #McGillAlumni.

DECORATE YOUR MORTARBOARD

Show your McGill pride while letting your creative side shine by decorating your own graduation mortarboard. Print and cut the cap outline on the following page, and use whatever you have on hand to personalize it: leaves or flowers, puzzle pieces, stickers, photos, magazine clippings, paint, coloured pencils, markers, anything goes! Share photos of your creation on social media using the hashtag #McGillGrad2020.

Don't have a graduation cap?

Celebrate.

Convocation is your day. That's when you will join the ranks as a freshly-minted McGill graduate! Be sure to check your email regularly leading up to November 5, 2020 for instructions from the University on how to access your Virtual Ceremony. The entire McGill community will be ready to celebrate your incredible accomplishment with you. Don't forget to watch for your name!

GRADUATE SHOW-AND-TELL

Reflect on some of your best times at McGill. Share your answers with your family and friends - they may have some of the same ones!

- ▶ What's your go-to eatery in Montreal?
- ▶ What was the best class you took at McGill?
- ▶ Share a photo of you and your friends at McGill.
- ▶ What's your proudest accomplishment from your time at McGill?
- ▶ Favourite place to work or study on campus?
- ▶ Favourite place to lounge or snooze on campus?
- ▶ Your top tip for surviving a Montreal winter?
- ▶ Your most memorable moment at McGill.

Congrats, grad!
