

Department of History
Minor Concentration in History (18 credits)

Program Advising/Audit Form

(updated October 2020)

Program Requirements

The Minor Concentration History introduces students to the study of diverse cultures and societies around the world from antiquity to contemporary times. It is an excellent complement to the major concentrations offered in the Faculty of Arts. The Minor Concentration History is expandable to a Major Concentration History.

Students wishing to complete a history program are encouraged to consult a Program Adviser at the beginning of their first year, and to fill out a departmental program advising/audit form. For more information about the undergraduate programs in history, and for advising information and forms, visit the program's website at <http://www.mcgill.ca/history/undergraduate>.

Important note: Advanced Placement or International Baccalaureate credits may not be included in the overall credit requirement for history programs. If you take the same Special Topics Course twice, you must advise the History Student Affairs Coordinator, who will confirm with Faculty advising that the course content is different. This will ensure that the course is included in both your final credit count and GPA calculation.

Complementary Courses (18 credits)

18 credits of history courses (HIST courses or selected courses offered in other units - see list on next page), of which no more than 6 credits may be at the 100- or 200-level.

Fill in the audit form with courses taken to date and bring with you when seeing an Adviser, or, complete entire form and bring to an Adviser for confirmation for graduation for the History component of your degree. [NOTE: IMPORTANT to list the 'HIST' courses on our audit form (below) that are used to fulfill program requirements toward other programs.]
