Article 1 – Purpose of the Agreement

1.01

The purpose of this agreement is to establish and maintain good labour relations and an orderly collective bargaining relationship between the University and its employees represented by the Union, to establish and maintain equitable working conditions, to foster and promote good relations between the University and the employees and to facilitate the effective and equitable settlement of problems that may arise.

Article 2 – Union Recognition

2.01

The University recognizes the Union as being the only official representative and the sole authorized agent, for negotiation or other purposes, for the employees covered by this collective agreement.

2.02

In order to be valid, all agreements subsequent to the signature of the present agreement among one, several or all employees and the University (Human Resources), that modify the present agreement, must receive the written approval of the Union.

2.03

All employees who are members in good standing of the Union at the time of the signing of this agreement, and all those who become members thereafter, must maintain their membership in the Union for the duration of this agreement as a condition of continued employment, subject to the provisions of clause 2.05.

2.04

All new employees must become members in good standing of the Union by signing a membership card and by paying the entry fee determined by the Union.

2.05

The University is not bound to dismiss or transfer an employee because the Union has expelled them from their ranks.

Article 3 – Management Rights

3.01

The University has and retains all its rights and privileges in effectively managing and administering its activities in conformity with the provisions of this agreement.

3.02

The University will treat its employees with justice.

Article 4 – Discrimination, Sexual Harassment and Harassment

4.01

- a) The parties agree that the rights and obligations stipulated in the Quebec Charter of Human Rights and Freedoms, in the Act Respecting Labour Standards and Civil Code are an integral part of this collective agreement
- b) Every person has a right to full and equal recognition and exercise of his human rights and freedoms, without distinction, exclusion or preference based on race, colour, sex, gender identity or expression, pregnancy, sexual orientation, civil status, age except as provided by law, religion, political convictions, language, ethnic or national origin, social condition, a handicap or the use of any means to palliate a handicap. Discrimination exists where such a distinction, exclusion or preference has the effect of nullifying or impairing such rights.
- c) The University is committed to employment equity in order to correct disadvantages in employment experienced by members of groups that have been shown to face persistent and systemic barriers to equity in employment.

The parties agree that the rights and obligations stipulated in McGill University's Employment Equity Policy are an integral part of this collective agreement.

4.02

Every Employee has the right to work in an environment which is free from any form of harassment.

4.03

The University must take all reasonable means to prevent psychological harassment and, when such conduct is brought to its attention, to put an end to it.

4.04

The term “psychological harassment” means any vexatious behaviour in the form of repeated and hostile or unwanted conduct, verbal comments, actions or gestures, that affects an employee’s dignity or psychological or physical integrity and that results in a harmful work environment for the employee. For greater clarity, psychological harassment includes such behaviour in the form of such verbal comments, actions or gestures of a sexual nature.

4.05

A single serious incidence of such behaviour that has a lasting harmful effect on an employee may also constitute psychological harassment.

4.06

The present article does not limit management rights as set out in Article 3 in areas such as, performance management, labour relations and discipline.

5.02

If, during the lifetime of this agreement, the University is of the opinion that an employee should be excluded from the bargaining unit because they are no longer an employee within the meaning of the Labour Code, or for any other reason, and if this employee continues to perform most of the tasks which they performed in their previous position, the University must then proceed according to the provisions of article 39 of the Quebec Labour Code. The burden of proof rests with the University.

5.04

Step 2

- a) If the problem or disagreement is not resolved at Step 1, or if the supervisor fails to provide an answer within the delay in Step 1 c), the Union shall have the right to submit a grievance or disagreement in writing to Labour & Employee Relations. Labour & Employee Relations shall render a written decision within fifteen (15) working days of receipt of the grievance or disagreement.

10.04 Arbitrator's Jurisdiction

- a) In rendering a decision on any grievance or disagreement, the arbitrator must consider the letter and the spirit of the collective agreement. 10.07

The arbitrator's fees and expenses shall be borne by the parties on an equal basis.

10.08 Delays

A short-term disability leave which is interrupted but which relates to the same sickness must not exceed a cumulative period of one hundred and eighty-two (182) days within a period of twelve (12) months.

37.09

Notwithstanding clause 37.08 above, in the case of a disability covered by the provisions of the Act Respecting Industrial Accidents and Occupational Diseases, the maximum duration of the short-term disability leave shall be twelve (12) months.

37.10

An employee on short-term disability leave receives an indemnity equal to one hundred percent (100%) of salary as of the date of onset of short-term disability, reduced by the following amounts:

- all of the normal payroll deductions which must be made or would have been made had it not been for the disability leave;
- any amount of income received by the employee in respect of their disability, including payments under the Quebec Pension Plan, the Canada Pension Plan, any Workmen's Compensation Act or any other government compensation program.

37.11

If an increase in salary takes place during the short-term disability leave, the employee benefits nonetheless from the increase to which the employee is entitled, as if the employee had not been on a short-term disability leave.

37.12

An employee will accumulate seniority while on short-term disability leave.

37.13

All contributory and non-contributory benefits plans will be continued in respect of an employee on short-term disability leave.

37.14

The University reserves the right to require that an employee requesting a short-term disability leave, or any extension thereof, be examined by a legally qualified medical practitioner appointed by the University at the University's expense. The leave recommendation of the University's medical practitioner shall prevail. However, the Union may file a grievance in accordance with clause 10.02 (e) (Grievance and Disagreement Procedure).

37.15

Upon their return to work, an employee will be reinstated into the position held at the commencement of the short-term disability leave.

If the employee's position has been abolished, the employee will be accorded the rights that would have been granted had the employee been at work.

Long-Term Disability

37.16

Subject to the terms of the long term disability plan, the employee will be eligible for long-term disability benefits at the expiry of the period stipulated in clause 37.08.

37.17

An employee will not accumulate seniority while on long-term disability leave. Any vacation outstanding in respect of the employee at the expiry of the short-term disability leave shall be paid out to the employee at the time they are accepted on to long term disability.

37.18

After the fourth (4th) month of short-term disability, Human Resources (Pensions and Benefits) will notify the employee in writing in order to initiate the process of filing an application for long-term disability benefits. All documentation must be completed and submitted to the administrators of the long-term disability plan prior to the expiry of short-term disability leave in order to ensure that claims are processed and approved as quickly as possible and to minimize the delay in providing income security for the employee.

37.19

If the application and the appeal, if any, are refused, the employee must return to work. However, the Union may file a grievance in accordance with clause 10.02 (Grievance and Disagreement Procedure).

37.20

In the event that an employee is examined by a physician at the University's request, the University must provide the employee with a copy of that physician's medical report.

37.21

All contributory and noncontributory benefits plans will be continued in respect of an employee on long-term disability leave; however, such employee will not be required to pay their contributions to the Life Insurance Plan and the Pension Plan. Such contributions shall be assumed by the University or the insurance plan as the case may be.

37.22

An employee who, during their long-term disability leave, returns to work on a progressive basis will receive a vacation indemnity. This indemnity is calculated on the basis of the weekly wages earned by the employee, during the progressive return, multiplied by two percent (2%) for each week of their vacation entitlement at the onset of disability.

37.23

At the termination of the long-term disability leave, employees must return to work or resign from the University.

Upon their return to work following an absence due to illness or injury, other than work-related, employees are reinstated in the position they occupied before their absence if the absence is less than three (3) years.

If the absence is three (3) years or more and their position has been permanently filled, they will be relocated, without loss of salary, into a position with similar working conditions within the University either at a level equal to that of their previous position or, if it is not possible, at a lower level without reduction in personal classification/level provided that they meet the qualifications required in the new position.

In both cases, should their position have been abolished during the absence, Article 16 (Employment Security) will apply.

37.24

The salary that the employee receives upon returning to work will be the salary the employee was receiving when the leave commenced, increased by the amount of any scale increase implemented during the course of the leave, subject to the provisions of article 23 (Salary Administration).

General Provisions

37.25

The employee must notify their immediate supervisor or delegate before their regular working hours, as of the first day of their absence or as soon as possible in cases where the employee was incapable of such notification.

37.26

The University reserves the right at all times to verify the certificate supplied by the employee's attending physician or to have the employee medically examined by a medical practitioner named by the University.

37.27

Medical certificates or the results of medical examinations are confidential and shall be treated as such by the University who will provide a copy to the employee concerned upon request.

37.28

No employee is obliged to tell their immediate supervisor of the nature of their sickness, diagnosis or other information relative to their ability to work that appears on the medical certificate.

37.29

When an employee undergoes a medical examination at the request of the University and in the office of the medical practitioner named by the University, or undergoes a medical examination by a third medical practitioner, as stipulated in clause 37.30, the employee does so without loss of earnings (i.e. pay or salary continuance benefits).

Medical Adjudication

37.30

If a grievance concerning the subjects mentioned in (i) and (ii) is not resolved at step 2 of the Grievance and Disagreement Procedure, the Union may submit it to step 3 in accordance with clause 10.02(d) (Grievance and Disagreement Procedure). Such submission may include a request for medical adjudication. In the latter case, and upon written acceptance by the University of the medical adjudication process, within five (5) working days of receipt of the grievance at step 3, the grievance will proceed in the following way:

(i) Short-term disability leave

In the event of a discrepancy between the short-term disability leave recommendation of the employee's attending physician and the University's medical practitioner, the two medical practitioners will choose a third medical practitioner who will decide the length of the leave, if applicable.

(ii) Long-term disability medical evaluation

In the event of a discrepancy concerning a medical evaluation between the employee's attending physician and the University's and/or insurer's medical practitioner, the medical practitioners will choose a third medical practitioner who will decide on the medical issues.

(iii) Medical conclusions

The fees and expenses incurred for the third medical practitioner will be shared equally by the parties to the collective agreement. No grievance can be filed with respect to the third medical practitioner's findings. Any employee who fails to comply with the decision of the third medical practitioner will be deemed to have resigned from the University. No grievance can be filed with respect to such resignation.

(iv) Optional recourse

The University may refuse, without justification, to resolve a grievance through the medical adjudication process.

37.31

If the University does not accept the medical adjudication process in accordance with clause 37.30, the Union shall, within twenty (20) working days of the expiry of the delay provided in clause 37.30 deliver to Employee Relations a signed request for arbitration. This request shall include a copy of the grievance or disagreement. All time limits mentioned in this article are mandatory unless otherwise agreed in writing. Failure to comply with this renders the grievance or disagreement null, void and illegal.

Article 38 – Work Accidents

38.01

- a) In the case of a work-related accident or occupational disease covered by the "Act respecting Industrial Accidents and Occupational Diseases," the University shall pay the employee's regular salary less all regular deductions during first fifty-two (52) weeks of disability, insofar as the employee is eligible for income replacement indemnity according to the CNESST. During the first fifty-two (52) week period of total disability, the indemnity granted by the CNESST to the employee shall be paid to the University.
- b) At the appropriate time (normally, the tenth (10th) month of disability), the employee must complete the University's eligibility forms for long-term disability benefits.

- c) Following the first fifty-two (52) week period, if the employee is still unable to return to work because of disability, all appropriate payments shall be paid directly by the CNESST to the employee in accordance with the applicable regulations.

38.02

If the University deems it appropriate, the employee must agree to be examined at the offices of a doctor chosen and paid for by the University. The employee must be given a copy of the report within five (5) working days of receipt by the University.

38.03

Subject to the other provisions of this collective agreement, when the employee returns to work, the University reinstates the employee in the position that the employee held at the beginning of the leave. If their position has been abolished, the employee will be accorded the rights that would have been granted had the employee been at work.

38.04

The salary which the employee receives upon return to work will be the salary the employee was receiving when the leave commenced, increased by the amount of any salary increases implemented during the course of the leave, in accordance with the provisions of article 23 (Salary Administration).

38.05

An employee who becomes able to work, but who remains afflicted by a permanent functional disability that prevents them from occupying the position they previously held, is placed, without any posting, in another position that their state of health allows them to occupy, taking into consideration the available positions that need to be filled.

38.06

An employee who has returned to work following an absence pursuant to this article and who must be absent from work in order to receive medical treatments, undergo medical examinations related to their injury or pursue activity in the context of their individualized rehabilitation plan, will be granted a leave without loss of their regular salary for the duration of the absence.
