LIF and RIF Plans Defined...

What is a LIF (Life Income Fund)?

• A decumulation plan that you draw a lifetime income
• Subject to annual Minimum and Maximum withdrawal limits
• Plans eligible for the LIF
  • Locked-in portion of your McGill University Pension Plan (MUPP)
  • Any other locked-in personal holdings held with a financial institution and under the Quebec legislation
LIF and RIF Plans Defined...

What is a RIF (Retirement Income Fund)?

• A decumulation plan that you draw an income
• Subject to annual Minimum withdrawal limits
• Plans eligible for the RIF
  • Your McGill University Group Retirement Savings Plan (RSP)
  • Non locked-in portions of your MUPP (ex: voluntary contribution)
  • Any other non locked-in personal holdings held with a financial institution
Minimums and Maximums...

- The minimums and maximums (LIF only) is a % of your holdings at beginning of year based on your age
- Option to make one-time election to use spouse age, if younger, to determine the minimum payment

- If you are eligible for the McGill LIF/RIF plan, you will have access to the Convert Retirement Savings into Retirement Income link under the Manage tab on the McGill University Savings Plan website.

!Diagram of tools to manage your account

This tool will allow you to...

- Select the plan you want to Transfer From
- Confirm the plan that you are to Transfer To
- Select your Investment Options
- Print, Sign and Return your RIF/LIF Application form

Important! You McGill LIF/RIF plan will not be set up and your assets will not be transferred into it until your application form has been received and approved.

Your McGill LIF/RIF is set up, now you can select your income payments!

- Once your McGill LIF/RIF plan is set up, you will have access to the Withdraw Income from LIF or RRIF link under the Manage tab on the McGill University Savings Plan website.

This tool will allow you to...

- Automatically calculate your Minimum and Maximum (LIF only) amounts and any taxes to be withheld

- Select member or spouse age to determine minimum withdrawal

- Select your payment amount, frequency and method for the current year

- Select the Carry Forward Election Option if you wish to continue your payment option for future years

- Note: If you do not make a selection, you will be paid the minimum payment in December
Transferring in Outside Funds...

You are able to transfer your personal LIF/RIF/LIRA and/or RSP plans into the McGill Group LIF/RIF, but note the following:

- Locked in Assets transferred in must be held under Quebec pension legislation

- Once transferred into the McGill Group LIF/RIF, you will not be able to make a withdrawal until the next calendar year (applies to your personal LIFs and RIFs only)

- You should consult with your financial institution prior to ensure they will not charge any additional fees to make the transfer to the Group Plan.

- This transfer cannot be done via the online tools. You will be required to complete an enrolment form and request the appropriate transfer forms from the Call Centre.
Timelines...

Transfers into the McGill LIF/RIF:
- Will occur along with the bi-monthly valuations (the 15th and 31st) of each month
- Will only occur once the LIF/RIF application has been received and approved and your MUPP (or RSP) account has been “settled”

McGill LIF/RIF Income Payments:
- Depends on the frequency you chose: Monthly, Quarterly, Semi-Annually or Annually
- The liquidation of your funds will coincide with the mid-month valuation
- Your cheque or direct deposit will be issued approximately 7 business days from the valuation date
- No tax withholding on minimum payment
- Not required to make a withdrawal during the year in which the LIF / RIF is opened
Next Steps...

The McGill LIF/RIF Plan is open and accepting transfers in:

• If eligible and interested, you can now go online and use the Convert Retirement Savings into Retirement Income tool on the Manage tab
