

Preliminary Program (v. June 9, 2009)

Symposium: "Feminist Visual Methodologies for Social Action"

September 25, 2009

Thomson House, McGill University, 3650 McTavish St. (North of Dr. Penfield St.)

9:30 – 10 am                    Welcome and opening remarks

Representative of the Faculty of Arts (TBA)

Professor Marguerite Deslauriers, Director, Institute for Gender, Sexuality, and Feminism Studies (IGSF)

Professor Claudia Mitchell, Faculty of Education and Dr. Myriam Gervais, IGSF

10h00 –12h45                Guest Speaker and Facilitator for the participatory session

Professor Brinton Lykes, Associate Director, Center for Human Rights and International Justice, Boston College, Massachusetts

12:45 – 2 pm                Lunch

Photographic exhibition: What can a girl do with a camera?

2 – 3:30 pm                Panel: Visual Participatory Research

Chair: Claudia Mitchell, Faculty of Education

Ran Tao, Faculty of Education

Sarah Flicke, York University

Shannon Walsh, Faculty of Education, Centre for Civil Societies (University of KwaZulu Natal)

Hourig Attarian, CURA project on genocide survivors, Concordia University

Discussant: Lucie Bazinet, Gender Equity Specialist, CIDA

4 – 5:30 pm                Documentary "Where the Water Meets the Sky" (Public Event)

David Ebert, Filmmaker and Director, Camfed

5:30 – 6:30 pm                Closing remarks and Wine and Cheese reception