Mission Brewery

Hannah Brais,
Research Coordinator
Mission Brewery

Erik Latimer,
Department of Psychiatry,
McGill University

The number of people experiencing homelessness is continuing to rise in most countries. Why is this happening, and what can be done to prevent it? Drawing from Gaetz and Dej's framework for homelessness prevention, speakers will discuss real-world applications from international examples, illustrating what can be done in Québec. Questions for future research will be outlined, and evidence-informed policy directions put forward.
