

POLICY TALKS

Webinar Series
April 6th

12:30-1:30 EST

Disability Rights in Policy Responses to the COVID-19 Pandemic

Moderator: Dr. Raphael Lencucha,
McGill School of Physical and Occupational Therapy

Dr. Keiko Shikako-Thomas,
Canada Research Chair in Childhood
Disability, McGill School of Physical & Occupational Therapy

Dr. Sébastien Jodoin,
Canada Research Chair in Human Rights, Health, & the Environment,
McGill Faculty of Law

Dr. Ciara Siobhan Brennan
COVID-19 Disability Rights Monitor
& Centre for Disability Studies,
University of Iceland

Dr. Derek L. Cogburn,
American University & Executive Director, Institute on Disability and Public Policy

Drawing on a systematic analysis of COVID-19 policies as well as surveys of people with disabilities, this webinar will address whether and how governments around the world have adopted COVID-19 control and recovery policies that recognize and protect the rights of persons with disabilities.

REGISTRATION REQUIRED: <https://mcgill.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZMoc-irrTwpGtUF2xinrbldVVD18Qj9fY-Q>

Talks will be recorded and posted at <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UC1peo5J2pih7qnKp1uFe4sQ>

The McGill Centre for Human Rights and
Legal Pluralism

McGill

School of Physical and Occupational Therapy