

Step I: Laying Foundations

essential information for international students

Discovering Academic Interests

Getting Involved & Creating Experiences

Extra curricular activities

Volunteering

Expanding Skills

Language

Transferable skills

Identifying Job Searching Tools

Attending CaPS's workshops about CV & cover letter

Drafting your own very first CV

Interested In Staying In Quebec After Your Studies?

Taking French courses for PEQ

Renewing your study permit on time if necessary

Taking a look at MIDI's website to get an idea of the requirements.

Step II: Internships & Jobs

Exploring Career Options

Taking a look at CaPS's career outlook resources

Talking to a career advisor about your career actions

Perfecting Your CV & Cover Letter

Updating your CV

Having your CV & cover letter reviewed by a career advisor or edited by a tutor

Developing Interview Skills

Comprehending Interview

Attending CaPS's workshops about interviews

Fortifying your Interview Skills

Practicing your Interview in French

Attending mock interviews on-line or off-line

Building Your Professional Image

Establishing a presence on LinkedIn

Attending CaPS's workshop: Perfect Your Professional Image

Starting networking (in or out of academia)

Refer to the resources on iSTEP website to guide through the steps of success

Prepare yourself throughout your time at McGill from UO to graduation

iSTEP

Mastering the Market:

Knowing where to start looking

Getting familiar with the Canadian job market

Securing Essential Documents to Work When You are a Student

SIN

Do I need a work permit?

Knowing Your Workplace

Are unpaid internships legal?

Integrating into your workplace

Step III: Final Year Checklist

Creating Your Targeted Application

Knowing the Options

Where to find future jobs?

What is a Working Holiday?

What else can you do with your degree?

Networking and Building Connections

Identifying the Professional Orders in Quebec

Completing Essential Documents After Graduation

Introducing post-graduation employment in Canada

Post-Graduation Work Permit & RAMQ health insurance

Permanent residency Info Session

Filing income tax

Life AYD

BRIDGE THE GAP Conference for International BCom Students

Step IV: Now You've Graduated

Knowing Your Rights as a Worker in Canada

Reading Information for Spouses and Family Members

Childcare

Refer to the resources on iSTEP website to guide through the steps of success

Prepare yourself throughout your time at McGill from UO to graduation

iSTEP

Open work permit for spouses and family members

Adapting to Quebec as a Worker

Reading the suggested articles about Quebec work values

Attending a workshop from MIDI

Knowing External Resources Available to You After Graduation

CV and cover letter advising and other workshops

Employment assistance programs

Improving Your French Skills at Work

Completing Essential Documents After Graduation

Extending your stay: PGWP & RAMQ health insurance

Applying for permanent residency

Filing Tax as a temporary worker

Business Start-Ups and Self-Employment

McGill Dobson Center for Entrepreneurship

Getting your legal questions answered

External resources

Information and workshops for artists

Reverse Culture Shock