Congratulations to our Master's students for being awarded the prestigious Canada Graduate Scholarship this year! Collectively administered by CIHR, NSERC, and SSHRC, the CGS-M program recognizes students who display high achievement in their studies. Below are several of our students who received the CGS-M this year:

Nadia Blostein
(Dr. Mallar Chakravarty)

Alyssa Dai
(Dr. Mallar Chakravarty)

“Relating structural and functional connectivity in subcortical-cortical networks across psychopathology”
Justine Hansen

(Dr. Bratislav Misić)

“Mapping neurotransmitter receptors to the connectivity and dynamics of the human neocortex”

Chloé Savignac

(Dr. Danilo Bzdok)

Kelsey Smolash

(Dr. Nancy Braverman and Dr. Pierre Lachapelle)

“Pathophysiology and Preclinical Endpoints of Retinopathy in a Murine Model of Zellweger Spectrum Disorder”