

IBAnD GRANDE
BIBLIOTHÈQUE

Our mission is to Make Neuroscience Accessible to the General Public

THE BIBLIOTHÈQUE
GUARANTEES
ACCESS TO ALL RESOURCES

What we do

Public conferences

Presentation videos

Speaker training

Impact on society: Enhances the public's trust and understanding of neuroscientific research

Impact on graduate students: Develop skills to communicate your research to the general public

P S1-S2

URRIUM

rendre la neuroscience accessible au public making neuroscience accessible to the public

what we do:
ce que nous faisons:

public conferences
conférences publiques

presentation videos
vidéos de présentations

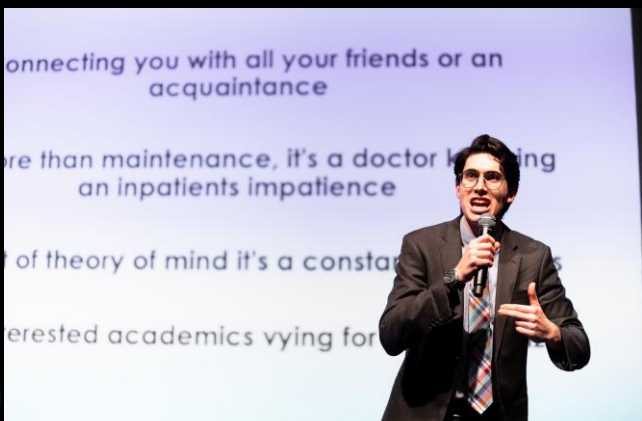

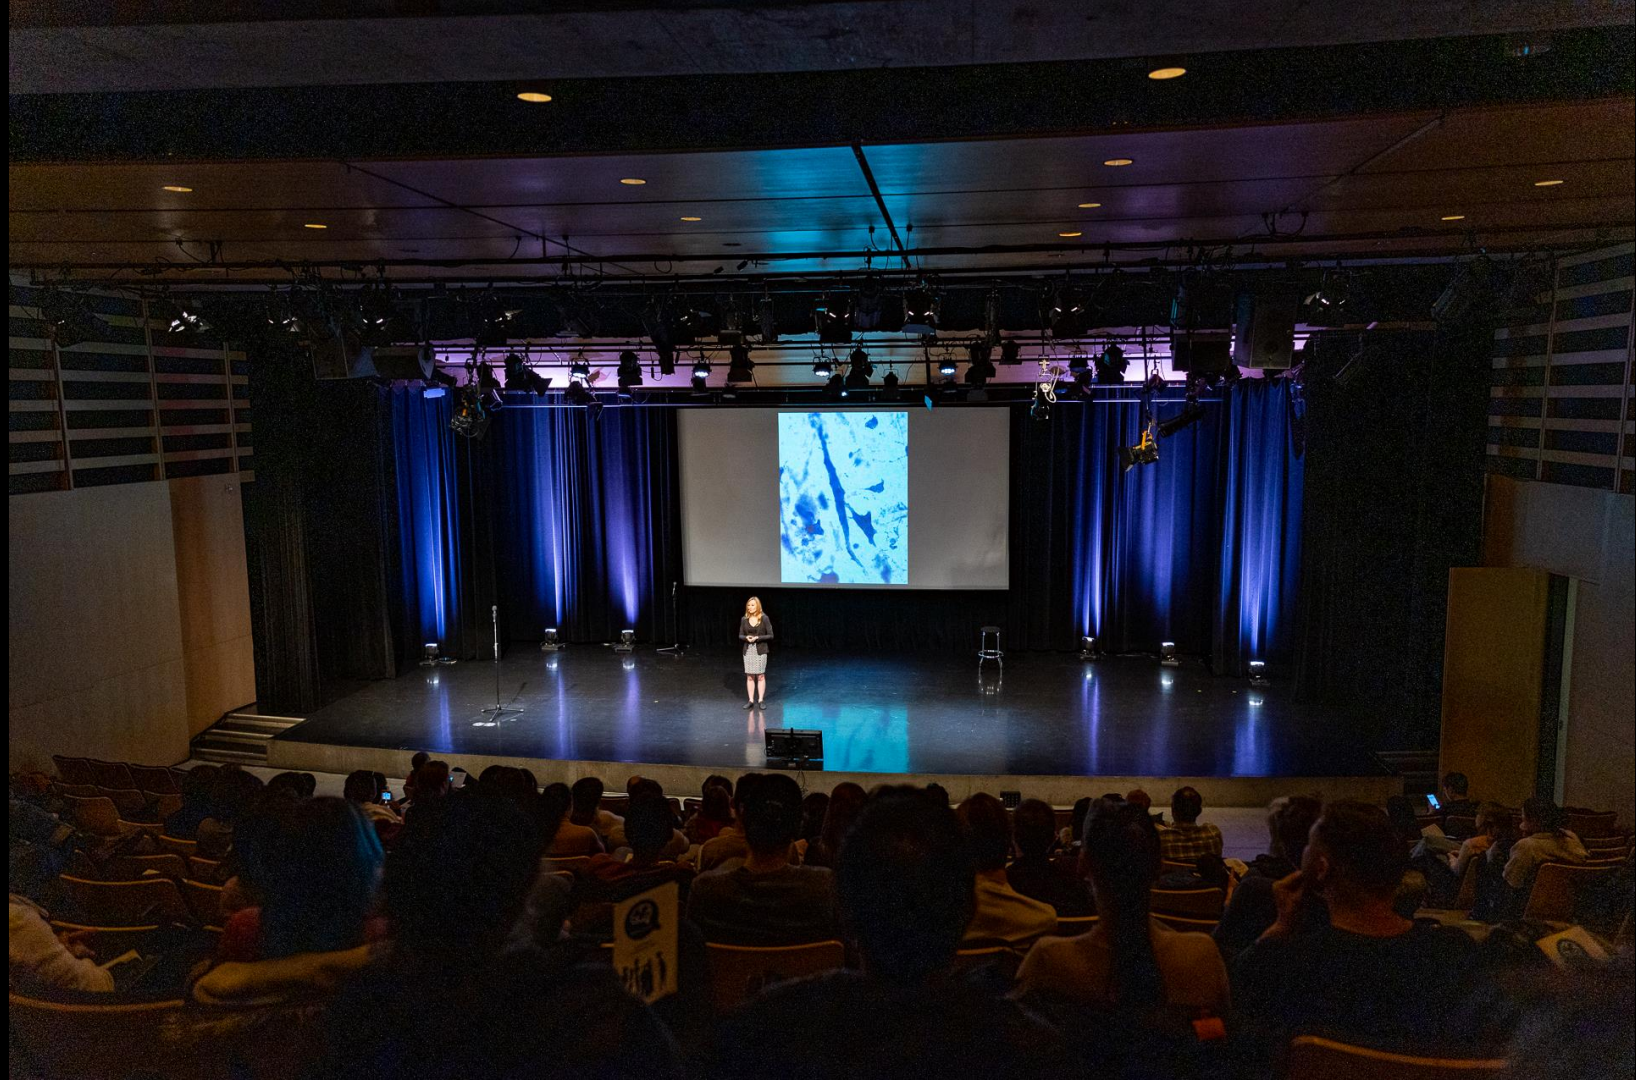

speaker training
formation de conférencier

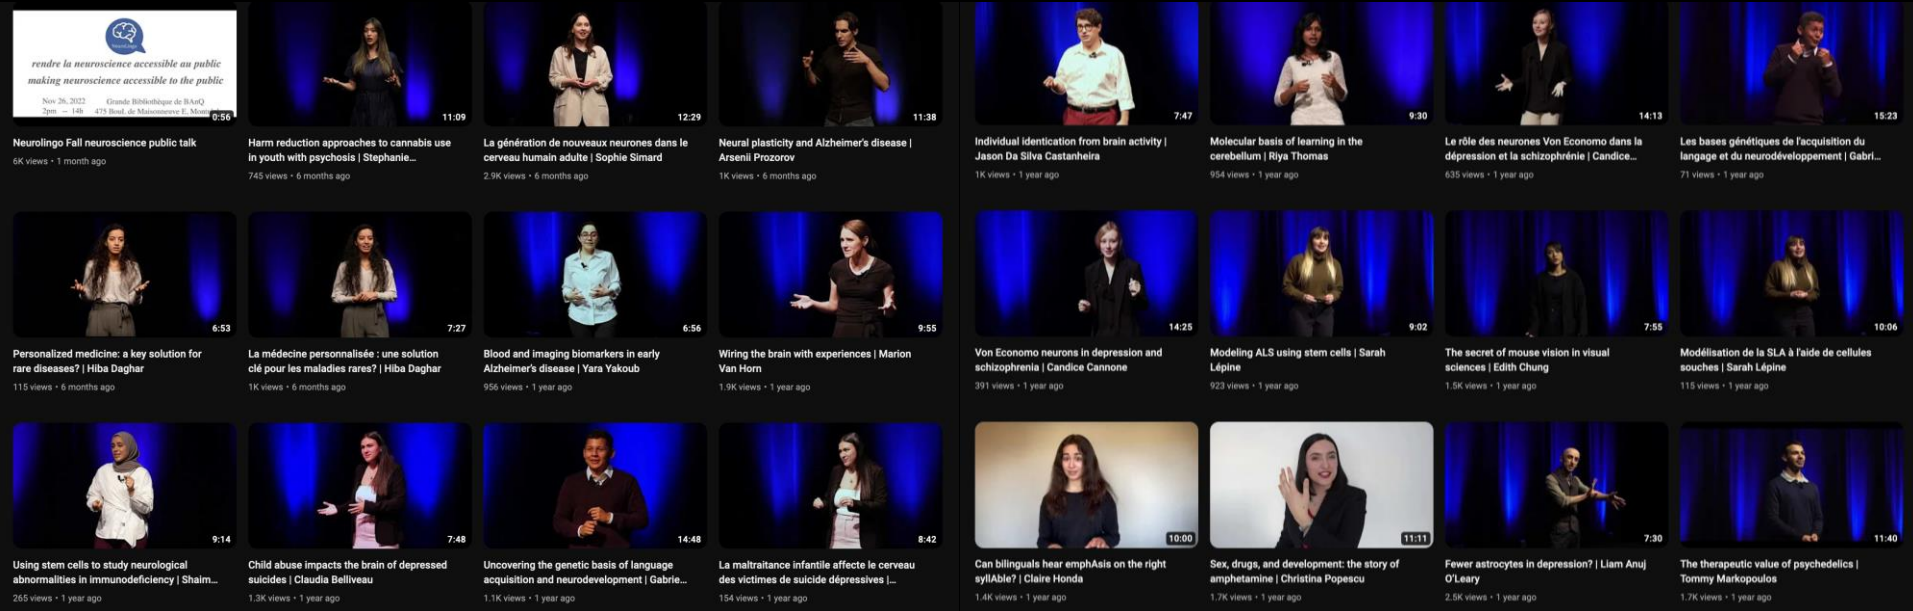

Graduate students gave TED-style presentations on their research | Public Conference November 2022

Presentations are published on YouTube for open access

www.youtube.com/@NeuroLingoMTL

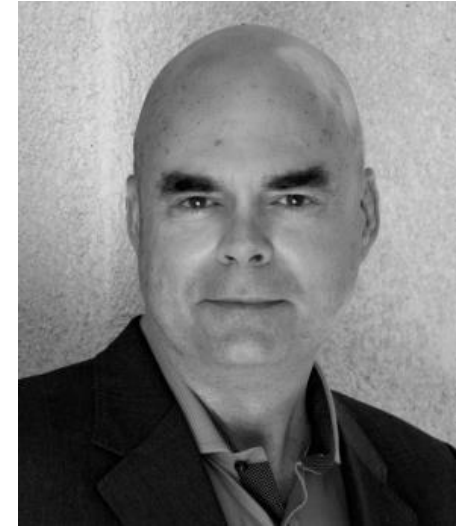

Academic and non-academic experts offer individualized training

Prof. David Ragsdale
Associate Professor

Prof. Edward Ruthazer
Professor

Michael Rochon
Science Journalist

Speaker training program

Series of workshops (~2 months)

- Coaching sessions
- In-person rehearsal

Coaching sessions

- Snowflake approach (3 → 10 minutes)
- Homework!
- Instructor and peer feedback

Rehearsal session

- Mock presentation
- Final feedback

Events in 2023

- Join as a speaker via application form →
- Deadline: January 20th

Keep in touch!

www.neurolingo.org | neurolingo.mcgill@gmail.com

@NeuroLingoMTL (FB, IG, YT)

Acknowledgement

Integrated Program in Neuroscience

