

FORM: Ph. D. ROTATION – CONCLUSION

OBJECTIVE:

The IPN Ph.D. Rotation student should provide a detailed summary of their rotation project. The summary should include the following: the work they have completed during the rotation period, the new skills and knowledge they have acquired via this project, and the contributions they believe they have made to their host lab.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR STUDENT:

- 1) Download this form onto your computer. Save it as PDF.
- 2) Fill in all the form's fields electronically
- 3) E-mail the completed form to Dr. Edward Ruthazer (ed.ruthazer@mcgill.ca).

DEADLINE:

This form must be e-mailed to Dr. Edward Ruthazer upon the completion of your rotation.

SECTION 1: BASIC INFORMATION
Student Name	Last, First
Supervisor Name	Last, First
Rotation Start Date	DD – MM – YYYY
Rotation End Date	DD – MM – YYYY

SECTION 2: SUMMARY OF WORK

Describe the work you have completed during the rotation period

SECTION 3: ACQUISITION OF NEW TOOLS

Describe the new skills and knowledge you have learned throughout the period

SECTION 4: YOUR CONTRIBUTIONS

Describe the meaningful contributions you have made to your host lab

SECTION 5: FEEDBACK

In summary, what were the positive and negative aspects of rotating in this particular lab?