

DECLARATION CONCERNING A JUDICIAL RECORD

The legislative provisions concerning judicial records in the Education Act and the Act respecting private education [introduced into those acts by the Act to amend the Education Act and Act respecting private education (Statutes of Québec, 2005, chapter 16)] refer to the following elements of a judicial record:

- any conviction for a criminal or penal offence committed in Canada or elsewhere, unless a pardon has been obtained for that offence
- any charge still pending for a criminal or penal offence committed in Canada or elsewhere
- any court order outstanding against the applicant in Canada or elsewhere

DEFINITIONS & INFORMATION

Criminal Offence

An offence created by a federal law to impose a sanction for grave misconduct that infringes the fundamental values of society. Laws that define criminal offences include the Criminal Code, and the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act.

Penal Offence

An offence created by a federal or provincial law to impose a sanction for a particular type of conduct. For example, the Employment Insurance Act and the Canadian Environmental Protection Act include penal offences created by a federal law; the Highway Safety code and the Youth Protection Act included penal offences created by a provincial law. A penal offence may also lead to a sanction imposed by municipal authorities (e.g. for an offence covered by a city by-law).

Charge Still Pending

A charge that has been laid in a case where the judicial or administrative court has not yet rendered a decision.

Court Order

A decision by a judge requiring a person to respect certain conditions, such as a surety under section 810 of the Criminal Code, a probation order, an order of prohibition to drive or to possess firearms, a restitution order or an order prohibiting a person from contacting persons under age 14 or being in a place where such persons are likely to be encountered. This list is not comprehensive. Under the Criminal Code, a discharge is considered a court order.

Conviction for an offence for which a pardon has been obtained

An offence for which a pardon has been obtained need not be mentioned. Information on applications for a pardon can be obtained from the National Parole Board Web site at <http://www.npb-cnrc.gc.ca>.
