Course Description
ITAL 216 is an intensive language course designed for students who already possess a basic knowledge of Italian. Over one term, this course introduces students to the more complex grammatical structures of written and spoken Italian. Students will also expand their vocabulary, thus developing the ability to handle a wider range of real-life situations and participate in more sophisticated discussions about Italy and its culture.

Prerequisites
In order to be admitted to this course, students must have taken a beginner level course in Italian, either in the Department (ITAL 205 or ITAL 206) or at another institution (in this case, the permission of the Department is required.) This course is NOT open to students who have taken ITAL 210.

For students wishing to pursue further study in Italian, this course fulfills the prerequisite for ITAL 250 (Literary composition) and other 200-level courses. (Please note that some 200-level courses are offered in English).
Course Objectives
At the beginning of this course students should be able to:
- Understand basic Italian spoken at a normal speed
- Communicate basic ideas and situations orally
- Express opinions
- Read texts
- Write coherently about subjects dealing with everyday life

By the end of this course, students should be able to:

Oral comprehension: understand the important elements of a conversation at a normal speed.

Oral production: express themselves in order to deal with everyday situations; describe events in the past tense; express emotions, wishes, likes, dislikes; express an opinion.

Written comprehension: understand the daily press and other popular publications; comprehend intermediate-level cultural and literary texts.

Written production: Produce summative, descriptive, narrative and expository texts on familiar topics using the proper sequence of tenses in the indicative and in the subjunctive.

Cultural: identify and explain cultural references as expressed in written, audio, and visual material.

Required texts

- Dictionary: a good Italian-English or Italian French dictionary. A dictionary is an essential tool to learning a foreign language. Departmental recommended online dictionaries:
  - Garzanti: https://www.garzantilinguistica.it/
  - Zanichelli: http://dizionari.zanichelli.it/
  - www.wordreference.com

REQUIRED TECHNICAL EQUIPMENT

- A dependable internet connection
- Headphones equipped with a microphone
- An appropriate device to produce short videos
- A webcam for oral assignments and oral presentations is strongly recommended
For any inquiries and/or regarding technical problems, please contact McGill IT Support:

INSTRUCTIONAL METHOD
In accordance with University and Faculty of Arts’ guidelines, teaching and learning of this course will consist of both synchronous and asynchronous activities. Students will be asked to complete asynchronous activities outside class time. Asynchronous learning will accommodate different time zones, it will allow self-paced assignment completion and alternative ways students can interact with the content. Asynchronous activities are an essential part of the course as they are also meant to prepare students for each class.

Synchronous activities will be conducted on Zoom (Zoom link will be posted on MyCourses) during the regularly scheduled course hours scheduled on Minerva. Although attendance at Zoom sessions is not mandatory, students are strongly encouraged to attend the synchronous sessions since interaction with the instructor and peers is an important aspect of language acquisition. Moreover, during the synchronous meetings, we have the opportunity to build a sense of collaboration and community.

The Zoom class sessions will not be recorded in this course. The students may be asked to record themselves in the Zoom room when creating dialogues and other audio exercises (see Oral Assignments on VHL/MyCourses/Zoom.
If students cannot attend the live sessions, it is his/her responsibility to study the lecture slides/ notes which will be posted on Mycourses after class.
All students are expected to consult Mycourses after each class to keep up with the assigned homework (Compiti).

Remote Learning Resources – see Teaching and Learning Services for more information on using Zoom.

Evaluation

- Preparatory Work & Homework ................................................................. 20%
- Quizzes ........................................................................................................ 15%
- Tests (2) .................................................................................................... 20%
- Compositions (2)...................................................................................... 10%
- Written Assignments/Discussion boards.............................................. 15%
- Oral Assignments .................................................................................... 10 %
- Oral Presentations/Interviews ................................................................. 10%

Preparatory Work & Homework
All asynchronous activities assigned, must be completed before class meetings. Students are expected to devote approximately 1.5 - 2 hours on studying and preparing for the class per day. The preparatory work will help them become familiar with the grammatical structures and the vocabulary that will be seen during the live sessions. Assigned activities will include: grammatical exercises, readings, vocabulary exercises, listening and speaking exercises on Mycourses and/or the online platform, Vista Higher Learning Supersite (VHL), associated with the textbook Immagina (www.vhlcentral.com).

As stated under Instructional method “Asynchronous activities are an essential part of the course as they are also meant to prepare students for each class.”

In an effort to avoid “Zoom fatigue”, meetings on Zoom will be reduced to approximately 1 hour, therefore, it is essential that students dedicate the time indicated above to the asynchronous activities.

After each class meeting, the Preparatory Work/Homework will be posted on MyCourses and/or the VHL Supersite. The time limit to submit the preparatory work and homework is 5 minutes before every Zoom session.

Please note that 5% per day will be deduced for late submissions.

Quizzes

Short quizzes will be given regularly on MyCourses and/or the VHL Supersite. Quizzes will help students monitor their acquisition of the material taught in class. Students will have an access window of at least 48 hours (outside regular class meeting times) in which to complete the quizzes.

Tests

Students will be asked to take 2 tests on Mycourses or Zoom. Tests will include a grammar section, a composition and/or a listening comprehension. Students will have an access window of at least 48 hours (outside regular class meeting times) in which to complete the tests.

Compositions

Students will be asked to write 2 compositions that are designed to develop their ability to use grammar structures and recycle vocabulary. Students must send, as a Word document, the compositions to the instructor on MyCourses (in Assignments) no later than 11:59 P.M. (Montreal time) on the due date. Late compositions carry a penalty of 1 point per day. Compositions handed in one week after due date will not be accepted.

Written Assignments

Students will be given regular writing assignments. More information on topics and evaluation method will be posted on MyCourses.

Oral Assignments on VHL/MyCourses/Zoom

Students will produce short videos, audio exercises, and dialogues in pairs or groups. Given the nature of class meetings and the limited time available, students may be asked to record themselves while in the Zoom room. Those who are not comfortable with recording themselves will be allowed to turn off the camera. Videos will be seen by the instructor only. More information on topics and evaluation method will be posted on MyCourses.

Oral Presentations/Interviews

One oral interview conducted via Zoom will take place during the course. More information on dates, topics and evaluation method will be posted on MyCourses.

Consult the Course Calendar posted on Mycourses for specific dates of assessments and the weekly schedule of the course.
There will be no make-up tests, quizzes, oral and written assignments unless a doctor’s certificate is provided (signed by a doctor). Students living in a different time zone, need to contact the instructor so that arrangements, if needed, can be made.

Students are forbidden to use translation tools or applications such as: Google translate, DeepL or any other kind of translation software. Moreover, they are forbidden to have their compositions corrected by native speakers or any other person. (See below under Academic integrity for more details.)

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

“McGill University values academic integrity. Therefore, all students must understand the meaning and consequences of cheating, plagiarism and other academic offences under the Code of Student Conduct and Disciplinary Procedures” (see McGill’s guide to academic honesty for more information). (Approved by Senate on 29 January 2003)

« L’université McGill attache une haute importance à l’honnêteté académique. Il incombe par conséquent à tous les étudiants de comprendre ce que l’on entend par tricherie, plagiat et autres infractions académiques, ainsi que les conséquences que peuvent avoir de telles actions, selon le Code de conduite de l’étudiant et des procédures disciplinaires (pour de plus amples renseignements, veuillez consulter le guide pour l’honnêteté académique de McGill).”

• Note that to support academic integrity, your assignments may be submitted to text-matching or other appropriate software (e.g., formula-, equation-, and graph-matching).”

• Please remember the following points when you write your essay:
  ○ It is a violation of the honour code to have your essays proofread by someone else.
  ○ It is a violation of the honour code to use translation software or online translation tools.

• The following statement must be added at the beginning of every composition, written assignment and recorded oral assignment: “I will be fair and honest in my coursework. I will neither give nor receive unauthorized aid on any assignment, quizzes or exam”.

“© Instructor-generated course materials (e.g., handouts, notes, summaries, exam questions) are protected by law and may not be copied or distributed in any form or in any medium without explicit permission of the instructor. Note that infringements of copyright can be subject to follow up by the University under the Code of Student Conduct and Disciplinary Procedures.”

INCLUSIVE LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

As the instructor of this course I endeavor to provide an inclusive learning environment. However, if you experience barriers to learning in this course, do not hesitate to discuss them with me and the Office for Students with Disabilities, 514-398-6009.

END OF COURSE EVALUATION

End-of-course evaluations are one of the ways that McGill works towards maintaining and improving the quality of courses and the student’s learning experience. You will be notified by email when the evaluations are available. Please note that a minimum number of responses must be received for results to be available to students.
