Research Assistant (Casual)

Research Assistant
BCL/JD, LLM, or MISt (in process)
Contract: 10 hours/week, July-December 2020 (27 weeks)
Hourly rate: $16.78
Supervisor: Katarina Daniels

Katarina Daniels (Liaison Librarian, Nahum Gelber Law Library) is looking for one (1) Research Assistant (RA) for a project entitled “Law Librarians Leading the AI Charge in Law Faculties and Across University Library Systems,” funded by the American Association of Law Libraries (AALL) Research Fund (An Endowment Established by LexisNexis®).

Responsibilities

The successful candidate will assist in the project from start to finish, including assistance with: the ethics board approval, a literature review, the carrying out of a survey, and drafting the final research article, to be submitted for publication by December 2020.

Required Skills

- Demonstrated interest in libraries, legal technology, legal education
- Excellent organizational skills, attention to detail
- Excellent communication skills, both written and verbal
- Experience conducting a survey or knowledge of survey methodology is an asset

Interested applicants should submit a cover letter describing their interest/experience and their C.V. no later than June 28th, 2020 to katarina.daniels@mcgill.ca.