Welcome to the Macdonald Campus Library!

The Library

- ❖ The Library is located in the Barton Building. In addition to housing our collections, it holds a computer lab (the eZone), three group study rooms, and lots of quiet study space.
- ❖ Services are open from 9:00 to 6:00 Monday through Thursday, 9:00 to 5:00 on Friday, and 11:00 to 7:00 on Sunday. There is also a 24-hour study space just outside the Library.

Your Librarians

- ❖ Emily MacKenzie, Head Librarian and Liaison Librarian for the School of Environment
- ❖ Dana Ingalls, Liaison Librarian for Agricultural Economics, Bioresource Engineering, Dietetics and Human Nutrition, and Food Science
- ❖ Mylène Pinard, Liaison Librarian for Animal Science, Plant Science, Natural Resource Sciences, Farm Management and Technology, and Institute of Parasitology

Library Resources

- ❖ The Library's collection holds over 100,000 items on the subjects of agriculture, food and animal science, nutrition, the environment, ecology, plant science, and agricultural engineering. These include:
 - ❖ Books and ebooks
 - ❖ Journals (paper and digital)
 - ❖ DVDs and other audiovisual materials
 - ❖ Government of Canada documents
 - ❖ Patents and standards
 - ❖ Data and statistics

Library Resources

- ❖ The Library also offers
 - ❖ Quiet study space
 - ❖ Group study rooms
 - ❖ Printers, photocopiers and scanners
 - ❖ Computers, software, wifi and plugs for your laptop
