Welcome to McGill’s Macdonald Campus
The essential guide for new students 2020-21
This booklet offers general information and pointers for getting started as a new student. Please note that the information in this booklet, including dates and deadlines, may be subject to change. McGill’s website for new students offers much more detailed and up-to-date information. Please check it out at: www.mcgill.ca/accepted
Throughout this booklet, you will be referred to websites for more comprehensive information.

The Resources and Contacts section on pages 22-23 of this booklet lists all of the addresses, telephone numbers and websites you will need to plan your arrival and get settled in at McGill. Every department, office or service mentioned in this booklet is listed there.

International students should refer to pages 20-21 for important information on coming to Canada to study. More information can be found on the website at: www.mcgill.ca/internationalstudents
Welcome to the McGill community

Congratulations on being admitted to McGill University. Starting a new chapter in your life is exciting. It involves a major change and may mean leaving the home you grew up in and moving to a new city or even a new country. Of course, this step also involves logistical challenges that we are happy to assist you with. This essential guide provides you with information you will need about registering, settling into campus life, and getting to know the Macdonald Campus community.

Studying at McGill’s Macdonald Campus is much more than spending time in lecture halls and classrooms – your courses will likely include laboratories, trips to fields and forests, and exposure to active learning classrooms. Because we offer an intimate educational setting, you will get to know your classmates well, and you will discover that your professors and the Macdonald staff are accessible, friendly and eager to help.

We really want you to feel at home quickly, so don’t be afraid to ask for help or advice! The Student Affairs Office in Laird Hall will help you navigate your academic program. The Student Services Office assists you with information about career options, financial aid and also provides mental and physical health services. Get involved with the Students’ Society, one of the student clubs, or check out the athletics facilities, the Glenfinnan Arena and the Arboretum. Be sure to explore the local community of Ste-Anne-de-Bellevue, and take advantage of all that Montreal has to offer. It is important to dedicate time and energy to your classwork, but you should also seize the moment to enjoy your new life, pursue established hobbies, explore your surroundings and build a network of peers and friends. The friends you make at university will be the social network surrounding you for many years to come. The first step towards building your own community is simple – just introduce yourself to that other new student sitting next to you in class. That person is likely as new to Macdonald Campus as you are and will appreciate you reaching out. Sharing this new experience will make it all the more memorable!

I wish you every success as you embark on your academic program and this new chapter in your life.

Sincerely,

Anja Geitmann, PhD
Dean, Faculty of Agricultural and Environmental Sciences
For students starting in September...

ON FRIDAY, APRIL 24, CONNECT WITH US

Virtual Campus Connect for Admitted Students
Friday, April 24 @ 11:00

Due to COVID-19, the in-person Campus Connect event scheduled to take place on April 24 (invitation on page 5 of the Essential Guide) will now be an online event rather than an on-Campus one. We sincerely regret not being able to meet you in person.

In this interactive session, there will be information about McGill University and what to expect as a Macdonald Campus student. Find out about academics, services, residence, activities and more. You will also have the opportunity to ask questions.

Join us on Friday, April 24 @ 11:00

To register:

Financial Planning and Financial Aid

An important step in planning your finances is estimating how much money you’re likely to have available to you for your university studies. This is why we encourage you to apply for Financial Aid early - so that you will have the information you need to properly estimate your resources before the deadline to accept your offer arrives.

The application deadline for our Entrance Bursary Program is 30 days from the date of formal acceptance to the university or June 30th (whichever comes first).

For further information on calculating your costs and on financial aid: https://mcgill.ca/accepted/nextsteps/finances

Scholarships

If you have been awarded an entrance scholarship, you will receive notification from the Scholarships and Student Aid Office. The entrance scholarship offer must be accepted by the deadline for accepting admission to McGill. Simply respond to the offer by logging into Minerva and selecting the Financial Aid/Awards menu.

Scholarships are credited directly to your fee account – one half on September 1 and the other half in the first week of January.

For complete information on scholarships visit the Scholarships site: www.mcgill.ca/studentaid

Accept your offer of admission

Coming to McGill? Start by accepting your offer on Minerva. Log in at www.mcgill.ca/minerva-students, select Applicant Menu > Applicant Status, select the application and click Accept this offer. You will need a credit card to pay the $400 non-refundable deposit.

If you have decided that McGill is the university for you, and you have been admitted to one of your program choices but are still waiting for a decision on another program, you can accept your first offer now. You will still receive decisions on any other choices and your confirmation can be changed to another program by contacting Service Point at mcgill.ca/servicepoint/modify
Deferring your offer

It is possible to request a deferral of your offer of admission for one year. See: mcgill.ca/accepted/nextsteps/accepting/deferring-or-declining-your-offer

Accept your residence offer

To guarantee a room in the Macdonald Campus Residences, confirm your room reservation through Minerva and pay the residence deposit by 11:59 P.M. EST, June 2, 2020. Make sure you read the online information and Community Living Guide carefully before accepting your offer (see page 12).

Missed the residence deadline? As soon as possible, email: gerry.chevalier@mcgill.ca

Send us your final marks

To complete your admission we need your final official transcript including confirmation of graduation. If you are coming from CEGEP or are an Ontario high school student (or graduate) with an OUAC number, we will receive this information electronically. All other new students see: www.mcgill.ca/accepted/nextsteps/finalmarks

Submit your legal documents

You are required to send us a number of legal documents, which vary according to whether you are an international student, Canadian citizen or Quebec resident.

Send in all your documents after you have accepted your offer and before you arrive on campus. This will ensure that your student record and tuition fees are up-to-date.

For information on what to submit: www.mcgill.ca/accepted/nextsteps/documents

Electronic copies can be submitted by webform at mcgill.ca/legaldocuments/submission-webform

For criteria and instructions: mcgill.ca/legaldocuments/how Freshman Students

You are considered a freshman student if you have been admitted from high school, or have completed a French Baccalaureate or International Baccalaureate, have less than 24 credits of advanced standing and/or are missing required freshman courses.

Freshman students entering the Faculty of Agricultural & Environmental Sciences have been admitted to one of the five programs listed on this page. Refer to your letter of acceptance or to your Minerva student record to verify your program.

The Freshman Academic Advisors will be holding mandatory advising sessions during Orientation Week. The Orientation schedule will be posted after July 23 at: www.mcgill.ca/macdonald/studentinfo/orientation

There is an option to take admission science placement exams. Deadline to apply is August 15. See: www.mcgill.ca/students/exams/dates/science.

If students in the freshman Nutrition program wish to pursue a degree in Dietetics, they must apply for a program transfer at the end of freshman year. Transfer is dependent on grade point average and the number of spaces available.

To transfer to Dietetics, please note that if you were required to provide proof of English proficiency when you applied to McGill you will also need to participate in a communication skills interview.

Please note that freshman students may take a maximum of 8 credits outside the faculty in their freshman year.
McGill 101: online orientation

Say goodbye to pre-university confusion and frustration - McGill 101 has arrived! McGill 101 is an online info hub for all new McGill undergraduate students with videos, quizzes, and much more. With information on everything from registration to courses to getting involved, McGill 101 is an invaluable resource to kick-start your McGill career.

All new undergraduate students are automatically enrolled in McGill 101 in the spring and you will be notified of your enrolment by email. Although you will be accessing it from your myCourses, it is not a course, more like an online orientation. McGill 101 will be available after May 1.

Academic advising

You will be assigned an Academic Advisor who will advise you throughout your degree with course selection and other related matters.

The list of Academic Advisors, as well as specific program advising information, can be found at: www.mcgill.ca/macdonald/studentinfo/advising

You should review this information before registering for your courses.

A Faculty Advisor is also available in the Student Affairs Office to assist you with general advising.

Students transferring from other universities should bring their transcripts with them when they meet with their Academic Advisor.

Register for your classes

McGill’s online registration system is known as Minerva. Registration opens in Minerva in June for all new students, but on different dates depending on where you are coming from.

You must register for at least one course by August 14 to avoid a late registration fee.

To find out your registration date see page 24 or: mcgill.ca/accepted/nextsteps/register/dates

A step-by-step registration guide can be found at: www.mcgill.ca/students/courses/add

Having problems using Minerva?
Fill out a webform at: mcgill.ca/servicepoint/contact-us or call the helpline during office hours at: 514-398-7878.
Get your ID card

Your student card is proof that you are a registered McGill student. You will need it to use most essential services on our campuses including exams, the library, athletics facilities and residences.

You can get your ID card at the Macdonald Campus Student Affairs Office or at Service Point on the downtown campus. To get your card you must be registered for at least one Fall term course.

You will need to bring with you:
- your McGill student number (found on your letter of admission)
- one piece of government issued photo ID

If you are moving into residence, the Macdonald Campus Student Affairs Office will be open for ID cards in the afternoon on residence move-in day, Sunday, August 23, from 12:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m. You can also get your card during the summer.

Tuition and fees

The cost of your first year at McGill depends on your program of study, your citizenship and where you will be living (residences, apartment, home, etc.).

For a tuition calculator, please visit www.mcgill.ca/student-accounts/tuition-fees/tuition-and-fees, and then select undergraduate fees from the side navigation bar.

E-Billing

Fall term tuition is billed in early August and is due by the end of August.

Winter term tuition is billed in early December and is due in early January.

Information on billing, fee payment and deadlines can be found on the website: www.mcgill.ca/student-accounts

During Macdonald Campus Orientation Week, the Student Accounts Office will hold an information session for new students and parents called Facts on Fees.

Learn about e-billing, billing dates, procedures, policies and more.

IT Services

You need your McGill Username (usually firstname.lastname@mail.mcgill.ca) and McGill Password to access most central IT services, including: myMcGill portal, myCourses, Minerva, email, wireless, Virtual Private Network (VPN).

Check out the IT Services website for descriptions and/or instructions on:
- your McGill Username and Short Username
- creating or changing your McGill password
- using email
- using myMcGill, myCourses or Minerva
- getting connected (VPN, wireless)
- printing on or off campus
- accessing free cloud storage (OneDrive-1Tb)
- accessing free software (MS Office 365, and more)
- two-factor authentication and other security initiatives

Macdonald Campus Computing Centre

The computing facilities on the Macdonald Campus are managed by McGill’s IT Services unit. Undergraduate computer labs are available 24/7, year-round, outside of scheduled class hours, offering Windows computers with Microsoft Office software. Visit: www.mcgill.ca/macdonald/about/resources/computercentre

Both scanning and printing are also available.

IT Service Desk walk-in support is available in the Macdonald-Stewart building, room MS2-025, from 9 a.m. to 4:45 p.m., Monday to Friday. Students may also contact the IT Service Desk by webform at www.mcgill.ca/it or call 514-398-3398.

Please note that important communications will be sent to your official McGill email address, including your e-bill for tuition and fees. It is your responsibility to make sure you check it regularly.

www.mcgill.ca/it/get-started-it/students
Housing and settling in

If you are planning on living in one of the Macdonald Campus Residences, you must accept your residence offer on Minerva by the deadline of 11:59 p.m. EST, June 2, 2020. Please make sure you read the information and Community Living Guide at www.mcgill.ca/students/housing/macdonald/carefully.

If you have not yet requested residence, please contact the Residence Office immediately at: gerry.chevalier@mcgill.ca

If you are planning to live off-campus, tips and a list of available accommodations can be found at: www.mcgill.ca/students/housing/offcampus

All about oneCard

The convenience of making purchases on campus without the hassle of carrying cash — your oneCard account on your McGill ID card is a convenient debit card for services on campus.

Use it to: • pay for meals/beverages/snacks at the Macdonald Campus Cafe, or in any of the dining halls and retail locations on the downtown campus; • pay for laundry in rez; • make purchases at the Mac Market and at select vending machines across campus; • pay a reduced admission at the McGill Gault Nature Reserve.

For students moving into Mac residence, $150 will be billed to your student account and placed on your oneCard.

There is no full meal plan on the Macdonald Campus as there is no cafeteria open in the evenings. All Mac residences have full kitchens and a bus is provided weekly to go grocery shopping.

Request a Buddy!

Want a head start navigating your first year at McGill?

Why not get paired up with a current McGill student who can provide a helping hand by showing you the ropes of McGill’s academic and social life.

To request a Buddy, International students should go to: www.mcgill.ca/internationalstudents/pre-arrival/buddy-program

Canadian students can find a buddy through the Student Life Ambassador program. Info at: www.mcgill.ca/firstyear/undergraduate/pre-arrival/programs/student-matching
Explore the Macdonald Campus Library

Located in the Barton Building, the Macdonald Campus Library provides leading-edge collections, facilities and services to support a range of student needs. Books, journals, DVDs and course reserves are just some of the many things that can be borrowed.

Friendly staff is on-hand to help students locate and use relevant information. Subject-specialist librarians can help students in person, via phone, email or online chat. Comfortable seating, an eZone fitted with computers and individual and group study areas are provided. Services such as printing, photocopying and scanning are also available, as well as direct or wireless access to the internet and the McGill network.

When should you get here?

Residence Move-in Day for the Macdonald Campus is Sunday, August 23. If you are not moving into residence, be sure to arrive in time for Orientation and Frosh, which runs from August 24 – September 1.

Frosh and Orientation

Don’t worry about trying to get settled into university life all by yourself. A week of Orientation and Frosh activities is planned for you that will be filled with opportunities to meet people, make new friends and get answers to any questions you may have.

Orientation and Frosh schedules will be available online in the summer at www.mcgill.ca/macdonald/studentinfo/orientation and www.maccampusfrosh.com respectively. Some events require pre-registration.

Winter Orientation

If you are entering McGill in January, you don’t have to feel left out. All of the Frosh and Orientation sessions offered in September of the year you start at McGill are open for you as well. Just send an email to welcome.macdonald@mcgill.ca in August and we will send you the orientation information.

Preparatory workshops

Are you curious about what McGill expects from you academically?

McGill has organized a number of helpful workshops and information sessions to aid you in adjusting to a university setting.

Discover McGill’s Academic Expectations, which is a full day of sessions, is offered at the Macdonald Campus during Orientation week.

See: mcgill.ca/macdonald/studentinfo/orientation

Transfer students also have an information session designed just for them. It will be held on the downtown campus. Please see the website below for details:

www.mcgill.ca/firstyear/undergraduate/orientation-week/fall/transfer

Macdonald Campus Parents’ Tent

We have special events planned just for parents during Orientation. See:

www.mcgill.ca/macdonald/studentinfo/orientation/parents
Francophone students

Vous n’avez encore jamais étudié en anglais? C’est à vous que s’adresse la session d’accueil durant la semaine d’orientation.

Pendant cette session l’Adjointe aux étudiants francophones vous souhaite elle-même la bienvenue et vous communiquera des informations essentielles pour réussir à McGill.

Nous espérons avoir l’occasion de vous rencontrer lors de cette session, au campus Macdonald le vendredi 28 août 2020.

Pour plus d’informations sur cette session d’orientation, et notamment l’horaire des activités et les modalités d’inscription, veuillez voir: www.mcgill.ca/firstyear/undergraduate/orientation-week/fall/academic-expectations

English language skills

While it isn’t necessary to be perfectly fluent in English to study at McGill, it helps to have a good understanding. If English is not your first language and you are entering Year 0 or Year 1, we offer a summer English course in August to help prepare you for studying at McGill. Subsidies are available; payment is required up front and eligible students will receive a credit in their student account in the fall.

For more information, see: www.mcgill.ca/mwc/courses/undergraduate-courses, course number CESL 299, Academic English Seminar.

Note: At the time of printing, this information was not yet confirmed for 2020. Please visit the above website for details.

Indigenous students

McGill’s First People’s House, on the downtown campus, provides a “home away from home” for First Nations, Inuit and Métis students. Playing many roles including those of residence, gathering place and resource centre, it is foremost a community. They provide a space where students can find academic support and stay connected to Indigenous culture.

Activities are organized during orientation and throughout the year, such as the annual Pow-Wow, community dinners, social activities, weekly soup and bannock lunches and guest speakers.

Also offered is the Cousins Peer Mentorship Program which offers the chance for new Indigenous students to connect with current Indigenous McGill students.

For more information, see: www.mcgill.ca/fph
Health and dental care

All Canadian undergraduate students (including students from Quebec) are automatically included in a supplemental health and dental plan administered by the Macdonald Campus Students’ Society (MCSS). For more information, see: www.studentcare.ca

Canadian students from other provinces should check with their provincial medicare office about the conditions of their health coverage while studying in QC.

Recent permanent residents and non-resident Canadians should refer to www.mcgill.ca/accepted/nextsteps/health-dental

International Students, and their accompanying dependants are required to participate in the compulsory McGill International Health Insurance (IHI).

For more information, see: www.mcgill.ca/internationalstudents/health

Students with disabilities

A variety of services are available to ensure that you can pursue a successful academic life at McGill. To make sure you have access to these services at the beginning of the term, contact the Office for Students with Disabilities as soon as you receive your offer of admission.

Advisors are available to discuss any barriers in your learning - be they temporary or permanent, visible or invisible: www.mcgill.ca/osd or email: disabilities.students@mcgill.ca
Macdonald Campus Student Affairs Office

The Student Affairs Office can help with any issues related to your admission or academic record.

Students can get their ID card, help with general advising, registration or exam issues, transfer credit questions, exchange information, and letters of attestation.

The Student Affairs Office also organizes orientation week for new students, as well as campus tours.

If you have other questions or issues, our staff will be happy to point you in the right direction for the answers you need.

See page 22 for contact information.

www.mcgill.ca/macdonald/studentinfo/sao

Services on the Macdonald Campus

While all McGill students are entitled to use the services of both campuses, both the Student Affairs Office in Laird Hall, and Student Services in the Centennial Centre can provide most of the help you will need as a Macdonald Campus student.

Student Services, Macdonald Campus

Student Services promotes students’ overall well-being and success. Students can access financial aid, career planning, help with spiritual well-being, office for students with disabilities, services for indigenous and international students, and support for sexual violence.

Student Services also offers on-site physical and mental health care through the Student Wellness Hub. Students can meet with a doctor, nurse, counsellor, dietitian, or local wellness advisor at Macdonald Campus.

See page 22 for contact information.

www.mcgill.ca/macdonald-studentservices
Life outside your classes

We know that as a new McGill student you are eager to meet new people, try new things and get involved. Whether you are looking for social opportunities, cultural, political, intellectual and physical challenges, or a taste of fun and excitement, you can find it all here!

Athletics and recreation

McGill’s Macdonald Campus offers many ways to get active! Come check out our Fitness Centre, where you can work up a sweat on our machines or in our gym. We offer varsity, intramural and rec sport programs, as well as lunch and evening fitness classes. The campus also has a paddle shack, arena, outdoor trekfit and sand volleyball courts.

To see what is available on the Macdonald Campus, check out: maccampusathletics.ca or our Mac Athletics and Recreation FB page.

Two campuses - one shuttle bus ride away

McGill’s shuttle is free for students and runs between McGill’s Downtown and Macdonald Campuses, Monday through Friday, approximately every 45 minutes, but more frequently during peak periods. For information, see: www.mcgill.ca/transport/shuttle

Macdonald Campus Students’ Society

The Macdonald Campus Students’ Society (MCSS) is the association of undergraduate and certificate students enrolled in a program on the Macdonald Campus.

The MCSS represents the student body and protects its welfare. Involved in all aspects of campus life, the Society advocates for students at the faculty, University and community levels, organizes internal events such as Frosh and Halloween, runs the Ceilidh (the campus pub), and much more.

International students

Studying internationally is an exciting adventure, but you may also have a lot of questions! International Student Services is dedicated to helping ease your transition and ensure you arrive well prepared.

Consult the International Student Pre-Arrival Resources for detailed information on:

- Immigration documents
- Health Insurance
- Student Residences & Off-Campus Housing
- The Buddy Program
- Packing for Montreal's climate
- Arriving at Customs and Immigration
- Your Airport Arrival
- Getting the essentials (banking, cell phones, and more)
- And much more!

mcgill.ca/internationalstudents/pre-arrival

Don’t delay!

Apply for your immigration documents early! You should start the process as soon as you receive your offer of admission to McGill. We strongly encourage you to start the process early to ensure that you receive your documents in time for the start of classes.

Once in Montreal, don’t forget to scan copies of your legal documents and send them to Service Point.

Exchange Students

Are you at McGill on exchange? Visit the McGill Abroad site for information you need to begin your studies at McGill.

mcgill.ca/mcgillabroad

Minors: Are you under the age of 17?

If you will be less than 17 years old by the time you travel to Canada, you must have a legal custodian in Montreal before starting immigration procedures to study at McGill.

If you do not have a custodian in Montreal - and you will be living in McGill Student Residences - you can request to have the Dean of Students act as your custodian.

For details: www.mcgill.ca/internationalstudents/immigration-documents/documents/minors

Internship/Co-op work permits

All international students who need to complete a mandatory internship as part of their program requirements will need a co-op work permit, whether the internship is paid or not (e.g. Dietetics or Concurrent Food Science/Nutrition students). You may apply for the permit at the same time as your study permit.

For more information: www.mcgill.ca/internationalstudents/work

For more information about your eligibility to work on or off campus, please visit: www.mcgill.ca/internationalstudents/work
