

MAUT Conference on University Governance

February 27, 2009 - 9am
 McGill Faculty Club

9:00	Welcome	Edith Zorychta
9:05	Keynote address: University governance in Canada	William Bruneau
10:00	University governance at McGill – a flow chart	Edith Zorychta
10:15	Panel discussion: The McGill Senate	Bernard Robaire, Chair
11:15	Panel discussion: The McGill Board of Governors	Richard Janda, Chair
12:15	Overview
12:30	Lunch
1:30	The Challenges we Face	Heather Munroe-Blum
	Panel discussion: The McGill Administration	Anthony C. Masi, Chair
2:45	The IGOPP Report* & Bill107: Alarm throughout Quebec	Cécile Sabourin
3:30	Panel discussion: Perspectives on governance	Malcolm Baines, Chair
4:30	General discussion and closing remarks
	Reception

WILLIAM BRUNEAU, Professor Emeritus, University of British Columbia, is a specialist in history and governance in Canadian universities, and a former President of both the UBC Faculty Association and CAUT.

CECILE SABOURIN, Professor, Université du Québec en Abitibi-Témiscamingue, is the President of the Québec Federation of University Teachers.

*The IGOPP Report and Bill 107 both recommend changes to the size, structure and function of University Boards of Governors, including marginalization of elected members, increased power for “independent” members, and the inclusion of government appointees.

PANEL MEMBERS:

The McGill Senate	Bernard Robaire, Chair
	Ian Butler
	Alexander DeGuise
	Jane Everett
The McGill Board of Governors	Richard Janda, Chair
	Trevor Garland
	Rod Macdonald
	David Harpp
The McGill Administration	Anthony C. Masi, Chair
	Martin Grant
	Lynne Gervais
Perspectives on Governance	Malcolm Baines, Chair
	Ashley Burgoyne
	Nadya Wilkinson
	Terence Hebert

*links to the IGOPP Report, Bill 107 and other documents can be found at <http://maut.mcgill.ca/CurrentConcerns.php>