Academic career trajectory: reappointment

- 2 year reappointments are not uncommon in some faculties
- Use reappointment as an opportunity to obtain feedback from Chair and act on it!
A one year reappointment is a very serious message
You are being told that you need to improve your performance
However, it is also necessarily the end of the world so long as you do make course corrections
An approved leave of more than 3 months can be basis for reappointment/tenure deferral

Up to two leaves and one delay due to Covid-19 can be requested (3 years total)

Deferral must be requested by June 1st of tenure year
• One request for early consideration for tenure can be made
• Earliest possible point is in 3rd year of appointment
• If unsuccessful, candidate will be considered again at usual time

Minimum assessment

- Superior performance in two categories
- One of two superior assessments must be for position responsibilities
- Reasonable performance in the third
6.12.1 Each department shall establish written criteria for the reappointment of Assistant Professors and Associate Professors. These criteria shall provide staff members with guidance in anticipation of meeting the requirements for reappointment and tenure.

6.12.3 The criteria for reappointment shall be communicated in writing to the staff member by the Departmental Chair within 2 months of the staff member’s initial appointment.

7.10 Each department shall establish written criteria which provide staff members with guidance in anticipation of meeting the requirements for tenure.

7.10.2 The criteria for tenure shall be communicated in writing to the staff member by the Departmental Chair within 2 months of the staff member’s initial appointment.

Preparing for the reappointment and tenure processes

1. When

2. What: Tenure criteria

3. How, in five steps

4. If things go wrong
1. Understand the rules

6.11 It is the responsibility of staff members to prepare and pursue their case for reappointment.

• Keep track of the process
• Know what you need to do, and by when
• Exercise due diligence
• Know your rights
Resources: information

Secretariat:
- Tenure track and tenured academic staff regulations
- Employment of librarian staff regulations
- Tenure information sessions

Expectations of you:
Your appointment letter
Your reappointment letter
2. Keep track of everything

- Keep a record of EVERYTHING you do related to:
  - Research
  - Teaching
  - Service (i.e. ANY contribution outside teaching and research)

- Start from the first day you are appointed!
- Do not "double-count"
3. Find a mentor

• Get yourself at least one mentor
• Many, but not all, departments run a mentorship program
• Make sure they are the right mentor for you
• Can be helpful to have someone inside and outside your department
4. Learn to say ‘yes’

- Research and teaching alone are not sufficient to get tenure
- Be willing to take on service activities for your department, faculty, at the university level or professional community
  - But be mindful of not overcommitting
  - Obtaining a ‘superior’ in the Service category usually requires taking on a leadership role
5. Criteria and expectations

• Understand the standards and rules by which you are being judged
• (Re)appointment letters are vague as to criteria
• Standards are NOT uniform across the university
• Talk to your department chair or director about expectations in your unit (and ideally also talk to other colleagues too!)
• Remember: at tenure you are judged on performance, not promise
Preparing for the reappointment and tenure processes

1. When

2. What: Tenure criteria

3. How

4. If things go wrong
If things go wrong

1. Don’t panic! Most assistant professors and librarians at McGill get tenure
2. Know your rights: you have the right to contest decisions that recommend against granting you tenure
3. At every level (Departmental Tenure Committee, University Tenure Committee and the Principal), if the committee is tending towards recommending non-renewal, you have the right to appear before the committee with an advisor and provide additional information
4. Talk to MAUT and find an advisor
Summary

• Know the rules
• Know your rights
• Know when to ask for help
• Know that you are not alone

Context for the Teaching Portfolio

The tenure and promotion dossier
A teaching portfolio is ...

... a concise compilation of selected information that systematically documents the effectiveness, scope, complexity, and individuality of an instructor’s teaching.

It reflects the progression of an instructor’s teaching over the last few years.

Regulations Relating to the Employment of Tenure Track and Tenured Academic Staff (2014), Guidelines for developing a teaching portfolio, Appendix A, p. 19:
https://www.mcgill.ca/tls/instructors/portfolio
McGill Guidelines

Teaching statement (5-10 pages)
1. Teaching approach (1-2 pages)
2. Teaching responsibilities
3. Evidence of teaching effectiveness
4. Teaching development and educational leadership (if applicable)

Appendices (10 pages max)
Documents explicitly referenced in teaching statement

https://www.mcgill.ca/tls/instructors/portfolio
1. Teaching Approach (1-2 pages)

How do you teach?
- What strategies do you use?
- How do you assess learning?

Why do you teach the way you do?
- What characterizes your teaching?
- What inspires your teaching practices?
2. Teaching Responsibilities

Courses taught, level, enrolment, format

- Clinical teaching: describe and quantify interactions

New courses developed, with rationale

Supervision

- Undergraduate, graduate, postdoc
  - Projects, theses, internships
3. Teaching Effectiveness

- Course evaluations
  - Summary
  - Interpretation of numerical ratings with department/Faculty norms

- Measures taken to address feedback

- Evidence of effective undergrad, grad and postdoc supervision (as applicable)
Teaching Portfolio

In light of the disruption to classes caused by COVID-19, instructors may choose whether or not to have their course evaluation results from the Winter 2020 term included in their teaching portfolio for purposes of reappointment and tenure. For more details about Winter 2020 course evaluations, go to https://mcgill.ca/mercury.

https://www.mcgill.ca/tls/instructors/portfolio

Numerical results from the Winter 2020 term will not be disseminated to the public even if permission was granted by the instructor and the response threshold is met.

</table>
| Description | • Means for each Faculty and the School of Continuing Studies for the 4 core questions
/ • Presented by course level and by class size for the four core questions on all course evaluations
/ • Average response rate by Faculty, academic unit, class size, type of course, rank of professor
/ • Number of instructors who granted/denied permission to disseminate results
/ • Number of students who complete and decline evaluations
/ • Submission patterns during evaluation periods
/ • Additional questions submitted by instructors
/ • Course Evaluation Advisory Group (CEAG) membership
/ • Summary of goals and results from the year

/ • Goals for the upcoming year | Numerical results of course evaluations are available for the McGill community to view when the following two conditions are met:
/ • An instructor has not objected to access; and
/ • An adequate response rate has been received.
/ Instructors, Teaching Assistants, and their academic unit head always have full access to their course evaluation results. |

4. Teaching development and educational leadership

- Teaching development efforts (e.g., workshops, webinars)
- Mentoring (e.g., colleague, TA)
- Contributions to teaching committees (e.g., Departmental, Faculty, University)
- Contributions to the development of curricula or policies on teaching
- Teaching related publications
How do you make teaching visible?
Gather evidence!

- Keep a record (CV, annual reports)
- Collect relevant materials - a (virtual) shoebox
  - Students supervised (undergrad and grad)
  - Course evaluations
  - Committees related to teaching and learning
  - Contributions to program development
  - (Re)Design of courses
  - Presentations about teaching
  - Role in development initiatives
The teaching portfolio ...

- encourages reflection on teaching
- expands the ways in which the complexity of teaching can be documented
- provides a framework for documenting teaching
- fosters dialogue about teaching

The Research Portfolio

presented by
Peter Grutter
Department of Physics
McGill University
Research criteria

• Performance, not promise.
• The period assessed includes all years up to the year of tenure consideration during tenure track period, rather than before. (Exception: early tenure candidates)
• Your dossier is what matters – no one else’s; tenure is not a comparative analysis.
• Record of research, scholarship, professional activities and contributions

(verbatim from the Provost’s tenure info session)
“Guidelines for Developing a Research Portfolio”

plus

“Examples of the Range of Research Accomplishments, Recognition and Impacts Valued at McGill”

Research Portfolio (5-7 pages):

“A research portfolio should include a statement about the professor’s scholarship that addresses:

1) The professor’s research program
2) The professor’s research accomplishments, recognition and impact

The statement should provide a narrative about the professor’s scholarship that summarizes and contextualizes their research trajectory, creations and contributions. The statement should complement or elaborate on (rather than repeat) information otherwise available in the curriculum vitae.”
1. YOUR RESEARCH PROGRAM

A narrative summarizing your research to-date

• Describe your key lines of research
• Why these were pursued?
• How these were pursued?

➢ Who are your audiences and interlocutors? (who engages with, contribute to and uses/benefits from your research)

➢ Looking ahead – goals for next 5 years
2.1 YOUR RESEARCH ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Most significant research accomplishments
  Explain role in collaborations.
  Explain role of HQP

- Record of productivity
  - Publications, creations, impacts
  - Disclosures, patents, copyrights
  - Research funding

- Innovative research efforts
2.2 RECOGNITION OF YOUR RESEARCH

at local, provincial, national, international levels

- Invitations (edited collections, keynote talks, conferences, seminars & workshops, visiting professor, research networks)
- Peer review for journals & granting agencies
- Consultancies or serving as an expert
- Prizes and awards
- Review of your work in journals or media
- Election as leader or member of scholarly society
2.3 IMPACT OF YOUR RESEARCH

Use OBJECTIVE markers!

- The range of scholarship that benefits from your research
- Citation record (but NOT impact factor of journal)
- Effects of research in clinical practice, industry, government, civil society (technology or policy innovations, commercial activity, social ventures)
- Effects of research on teaching and training
- Knowledge translation and community engagement

Avoid double counting!
(invited presentation as recognition OR evidence of impact)
Appendices (no page limit)

• Appendices should support and be germane to the Research Statement. They should be clearly labeled and organized. They may include:

1. A list of publications in standard citation style (may be omitted if this list is part of the submitted CV).
2. Copies (electronic) of, or active hyperlinks to, publications.
3. Other materials that may be relevant (e.g., reviews of the professor’s written or other work; artistic portfolios or recordings; a summary of innovation and entrepreneurial activity, including patent applications, patents, commercial or social enterprises launched).
Other thoughts

• The research portfolio guidelines are advisory
  • If you feel that you can tell your story more effectively with a different structure, you can do so
  • Be sure to capture what, why, how, impact and what next?

• For research collaborations: it is very important to explain your contribution.
  • Why was it essential to the results?
  • Did you play a role in forming and/or leading the team and getting funding?
Closing words

• Remember that you are writing for:
  • Experts (your external reviewers)
  • Researchers in related areas (your DTC members)
  • Researchers in unrelated areas (UTC members)

• If you received tenure guidelines from your Dean or Chair when you were hired, review them to get a better idea of what gets credit

• Effective time management is key. Prioritize!
• Spend time on what gets you credit
• Start a “Tenure Folder”. Keep everything

• Publish a lot in high impact journals
Service and other contributions to the University

Service portfolio
Approximately 4 pages

- Is part of the three pillars required for the tenure dossier
- Should be rewarding to you
- Expand your horizons
  - find areas of interest
  - use your talent
- Should be part of a greater narrative
- Try to include department, faculty and university levels of service
Service and other contributions to the University

What can be included in the Service portfolio

Service found at various levels (Department, Faculty, University)

- Department Level:
  - Committees (search, graduate admissions, program reviews, space, budget, safety, etc.)

- Faculty Level:
  - Committees (animal care, curriculum, awards, space, safety, libraries, etc.)
  - Faculty Senate member
Service and other contributions to the University

What can be included in the Service portfolio

- University Level:
  - Senate
  - Senate standing committees (9/10 committees)
  - Committees arising out of University regulations
  - Working groups/committees for policy or regulation revisions
  - MAUT Council / MAUT Executive
  - Outreach (can be implemented at all levels), i.e., research day of department, research ambassador, etc.
Service and other contributions to the University

Details can be found in the

Regulations Relating to the Employment of Tenure Track and Tenured Academic Staff

Questions?
Mentorship at McGill

MAUT Tenure Information Session

April 2021
A Good Mentor…

• Breaks social isolation
• Provides guidance
• Provides “reality checks” or barometers for what’s expected or acceptable
• Builds confidence
• Builds capacity
• Provides a sounding board or a “safe” place to test the things we contemplate
• Can provide the “inside scoop” about how things work
• Has the courage and the compassion to provide tough feedback
Mentorship Does Not Work When a Mentor...

- Gives bad advice
- Is a weak listener
- Directs rather than guides
- Is unable to centre the mentee
- Lack empathy
- Is jealous
- Gossips
- Is absent or unreliable
- Is judgmental or needlessly/unhelpfully critical
Finding a Mentor

• Look within and beyond your research group(s) and department.
• Understand that advice is just that – advice. It’s not a judgment, not a direction, not a rule.
• What works for your mentor won’t necessarily work for you. Finding your own path is important and a strong mentor will not only understand but nourish that.
• Rely on more than one source of advice.
Finding a Mentor: McGill’s New Provost’s Faculty Mentorship Network

Provost's Faculty Mentorship Network

Set to launch in summer 2021, the Provost’s Faculty Mentorship Network will be an important source of guidance and support to all pre-tenure professors. Mentors who are part of this network are outstanding teachers and researchers who have experience as institutional leaders at McGill. As their profiles show mentors possess a range of strengths and capacities that will contribute to guiding and advising junior colleagues.

All pre-tenure faculty are eligible to participate in the mentorship program. Information about how to be matched with a mentor within the Network, and about what participation as a mentee, see our Becoming a Mentor page.

Applications for the Provost’s Faculty Mentorship Network will be accepted starting May 2021.
