Public Speaking

I am frequently asked to deliver public speeches and to participate in policy-oriented panel discussions. Since 2010 I have made over 250 such presentations or appearances – to provincial and federal government departments, private corporations, chambers of commerce, industry associations, regional economics associations, and university alumni events. A small sample of my recent events and presentations includes:

- Conference Board of Canada (Center for Business Sustainability), Montreal
- Roundtable for Alberta Government on Climate Policy, Calgary
- Roundtable for Manitoba Government on Climate Policy, Winnipeg
- Public Policy Forum, Growth Summit (Ottawa)
- CPA Canada One Conference (Toronto)
- Manning Center, Annual Conference (Ottawa)
- Canadian Deputy Ministers of Finance, Policy Retreat (Meech Lake)
- Annual Meeting of Canadian Environment Ministers, Winnipeg
- Intergovernmental Working Group on Carbon Pricing (Ottawa)
- Ivanhoe-Cambridge (Montreal)
- Bell Canada (Lac Tremblant)
- McCarthy-Tetrault (Toronto)
- NABE Annual Conference (Washington, D.C.)
- Canadian Economics Association Annual Meetings (Ottawa and Calgary)
- House of Commons Finance Committee (Ottawa)

“Quiet” Engagement with Public Officials

In my capacity as a policy-minded economist, including as the Chair of Canada’s Ecofiscal Commission, I am actively engaged in behind-the-scenes briefings and consultations with elected and unelected public officials. These briefings have included discussions of tax reform, environmental policy, budget deficits and public debt, and monetary policy.
