Faculty Lecturer (Professional)

Faculty of Medicine – School of Physical and Occupational Therapy

Position description

The School of Physical and Occupational Therapy is seeking applications for a part-time position (2 days/week) as a member of the Contract Academic Staff at the rank of Faculty Lecturer (Professional) for a 6.5 month renewable contract. The incumbent will be expected to develop the Work Well McGill Pilot Program. The School is affiliated with McGill, Canada’s most international university, which is located in vibrant, multicultural Montreal, in the francophone province of Quebec.

Job Duties

- Develop a project plan that will be used to market the pilot program to departments around McGill University.
- Develop an evaluation component for the plan.
- Supervise three Professional Masters clinical placements. The placements will involve supervising students completing ergonomic assessments, job task analysis, and work disability prevention intervention.
- Contribute to teaching in OCC1 620: Work and Ergonomics course given in the Fall 2019 to diverse body of Professional Masters Students.
- Meet with department heads around McGill University to secure funding for the project for 2019-2020 academic year.

Qualifications and Education requirements

Minimum requirements:
- Master degree or higher
- Must be a member of the OEQ
- Spoken and written English. Spoken and written French an asset.
- Ability to communicate effectively with students, workers, and department managers
- A demonstrated commitment to – and in accordance with circumstances, a track record in – equity, diversity, and inclusiveness (EDI)
- Strong organizational skills
- Clinical experience as an occupational therapist in a work reintegration setting
- Experience with ergonomic assessment and job task analysis
- Experience with program development and evaluation an asset
- Ability to work well within a diverse team
JOB DETAILS

Job Type: Contract Academic Staff

Rank: Faculty Lecturer

Job status: Part-time

Salary: Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience

Posting period: 30 days from date of posting

APPLICATION PROCESS

Applications must be submitted on-line at: http://www.mcgill.ca/medicine-academic/positionsavailable

The following supporting documents are required:

- a cover letter & curriculum vitae (as 1 pdf document)
- the names and contact information of three references

McGill University hires on the basis of merit and is strongly committed to equity and diversity within its community. We welcome and encourage applications from racialized persons/visible minorities, women, Indigenous persons, persons with disabilities, ethnic minorities, and persons of minority sexual orientations and gender identities, as well as from all qualified candidates with the skills and knowledge to productively engage with diverse communities.

McGill further recognizes and fairly considers the impact of leaves (e.g., family care or health-related) that may contribute to career interruptions or slowdowns. Candidates are encouraged to signal any leave that affected productivity, may have had an effect on their career path. This information will be considered to ensure the equitable assessment of the candidate’s record.

McGill implements an employment equity program and encourages members of designated equity groups to self-identify. It further seeks to ensure the equitable treatment and full inclusion of persons with disabilities by striving for the implementation of universal design principles transversally, across all facets of the University community, and through accommodation policies and procedures. Persons with disabilities who anticipate needing accommodations for any part of the application process may contact, in confidence, Professor Angela Campbell, Associate Provost (Equity and Academic Policies) by email or phone at 514-398-1660.
All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.