

MANAGEMENT FORUM

Management Forum Steering Committee Presents:

What does your Employee Assistance Program (EAP) offer you?

Guest speaker, Leo Lalonde, Director of Business Development with Les consultants Longpré & associés inc, will outline the Employee Assistance Program, how managers can benefit from it, and what types of problems can be discussed.

We all face problems at some time in our lives. Usually we can cope or solve them ourselves. However, now and then a problem becomes too difficult for us to manage on our own. The confidential EAP provides assistance, advice - or just someone who will listen when we need it.
