

Michael Di Grappa joined McGill on November 15, 2010 as its Vice-Principal (Administration and Finance). As the chief financial and administrative officer of McGill University, the Vice-Principal (Administration and Finance), Mr. Di Grappa is responsible for: Financial Services, Human Resources, Information Technology Services, the Office of Investments, Risk Management and Insurance, and University Services.

A 1984 graduate of Concordia's School of Community and Public Affairs (BA Honours, Political Science), Mr. Di Grappa went on to complete a Master's of Public Policy and Administration at New York's Columbia University and the Advanced Management Program at the Harvard Business School.

Mr. Di Grappa is a native Montrealer and a veteran of Concordia University's senior administration, where he served as Vice-President, Services, from 2000 to 2010. As Vice-President, Services, he was responsible for Concordia's $500-million construction program and brought together numerous strategic units into an effective business operation. He was responsible for Human Resources, Facilities Management, Enrolment and Student Services, Instructional and Information Technology Services, Business Operations and other key administrative units. Mr. Di Grappa also served as the University's Interim President from November 2007 to July 2008.

