

PROJECT TITLE: Model & documentation configuration management process & tool

OBJECTIVE: The objective of the project is to improve a current database process & tool to track the BA & Supplier models and documentation deliverables (final releases).

DESCRIPTION: The work shall comprise of learning the current model & documentation configuration management process & tool, establishing new requirements based on stakeholder feedback, requirements feasibility & analysis, update or development of a new tool, and documentation of process & tool.

DELIVERABLES: Process & tool (ie. database), documentation of process & tool, eLearning user manual.

SCHEDULE: Summer 2011

NO OF HOURS: ~ 500 man-hours.

SOFTWARE TRAINING NEEDS: MS windows, MSAccess 2003, WEB based tools (ASP.NET and SQL) and WEB database programming

PRE-REQUISITE: Undergraduate Computer engineering or Computer Science student – 3rd year completed. You must have followed a database programming course.

PROJECT RESPONSIBLE: Antonio D’Amore x55430 (backup Francois Godin x57520)

DATE: Dec 2, 2010

REVISION: --