

McGill

Department of Microbiology & Immunology
McGill University

Department of
Microbiology and
Immunology

3775 University Street #511
Montreal (Quebec), Canada H3A 2B4

Tel: (514) 398-7492
<http://www.mcgill.ca/microimm/>

MIMM AWARDS 2021

*Winners will be presented at the MIMMdgerton Gala on April 9th 6pm-8pm
Prize: $100 Gift Card*

1. UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT OF THE YEAR

Eligibility: MIMM Undergraduate Student

Criteria: Must have been a student in the academic year 2020-2021 (across all years)

Selection: Survey is sent out to Undergraduate students so they can submit their self-nominations. The Gala committee reviews the candidates and votes on the winner.

How is the winner chosen?

Members of the Undergraduate Education Committee will receive the candidates' essays- the names and student IDs will be masked. Committee members will be asked to rank the candidates. The ranks will be tabulated by the Senior Administrative Coordinator, and the award will be given to the candidate with the highest average rank.

Survey to UG students:

The Undergraduate Education Committee will be accepting applications for the Undergraduate Student of the Year award.

This award will be presented to an undergraduate student who has demonstrated outstanding Academic Achievement and has contributed to scholar activities within the Department and to the overall McGill social atmosphere through extracurricular participation, student involvement, building a sense of community & encouraging peers during the pandemic. Students from all years can submit their nomination.

If you would like to apply for this award, please send the following to office.microimm@mcgill.ca :

1. An essay on how you embody each concept presented above. The essay should portray how you contributed to the MIMM department and McGill at large.

- Requirements: max 1 page, 12 font, Times New Roman, double-spaced.

- Format: Word document

- The subject of your email must be "Application for the 2021 Undergraduate Student of the Year"

- Submission Deadline: Monday, April 5 2021 11:59pm

2. Your transcript

McGill

Department of Microbiology & Immunology
McGill University

Department of
Microbiology and
Immunology

3775 University Street #511
Montreal (Quebec), Canada H3A 2B4

Tel: (514) 398-7492
<http://www.mcgill.ca/microimm/>

2. UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH AWARD

Eligibility: MIMM Undergraduate Student

Criteria: Must have been a student in the academic year 2020-2021 (across all years)

Selection: Survey is sent out to Undergraduate students so they can submit their self-nominations. The Gala committee reviews the candidates and votes on the winner.

How is the winner chosen?

Members of the Undergraduate Education Committee will receive the candidates' essays- the names and student IDs will be masked. Committee members will be asked to rank the candidates. The ranks will be tabulated by the Senior Administrative Coordinator, and the award will be given to the candidate with the highest average rank.

Survey to UG students:

The Undergraduate Committee will be accepting applications for the Undergraduate Research award.

This award will be presented to an undergraduate student that has demonstrated great research abilities throughout the year. Students from all years can submit their self-nomination.

If you would like to apply for this award, please send the following to office.microimm@mcgill.ca :

One-page document explaining your involvement in the field of your research. Include:

- Conferences attended*
- Poster presentations*
- Research awards received*
- Publications, including publications in MSURJ*

Requirements: max 1 page, 12 font, Times New Roman, double spaced.

Format: Word document

The subject of your email must be "Application for the 2021 Undergraduate Research Award"

Submission Deadline: Monday, April 5 2021 11:59pm

McGill

Department of Microbiology & Immunology
McGill University

Department of
Microbiology and Immunology

3775 University Street #511
Montreal (Quebec), Canada H3A 2B4

Tel: (514) 398-7492
<http://www.mcgill.ca/microimm/>

3. GRADUATE STUDENT OF THE YEAR

Eligibility: MIMM Graduate Student

Criteria: Must have been a graduate student in the academic year 2020-2021 (across all years)

Selection: Survey is sent out to Graduate students so they can submit their self-nominations.

The Gala committee reviews the candidates and votes on the winner.

How is the winner chosen?

Members of the Undergraduate Education Committee will receive the candidates' essays- the names and student IDs will be masked. Committee members will be asked to rank the candidates. The ranks will be tabulated by the Senior Administrative Coordinator, and the award will be given to the candidate with the highest average rank.

Survey to Graduate students:

The Graduate and Post-Graduate Education Committee will be accepting applications for the Graduate Student of the Year award.

This award will be presented to a graduate student who has demonstrated outstanding Academic Achievement and has contributed to scholar activities within the Department and to the overall McGill social atmosphere through extracurricular participation, Department and to the overall McGill social atmosphere through extracurricular participation, student involvement, building a sense of community & encouraging peers during the pandemic. Students from all years can submit their nomination.

If you would like to apply for this award, please send the following to office.microimm@mcgill.ca :

1. An essay on how you embody each concept presented above. The essay should portray how you contributed to the MIMM department and McGill at large.

Requirements: max 1 page, 12 font, Times New Roman, double-spaced.

Format: Word document

The subject of your email must be "Application for the 2021 Graduate Student of the Year"

Submission Deadline: Monday, April 5 2021 11:59pm

2. Your transcript

McGill

Department of Microbiology & Immunology
McGill University

Department of
Microbiology and
Immunology

3775 University Street #511
Montreal (Quebec), Canada H3A 2B4

Tel: (514) 398-7492
<http://www.mcgill.ca/microimm/>

4. GRADUATE RESEARCH AWARD

Eligibility: MIMM Graduate Student

Criteria: Must have been a student in the academic year 2020-2021 (across all years)

Selection: Email is sent out to Graduate students so they can submit their self-nominations. The Gala committee reviews the candidates and votes on the winner.

How is the winner chosen?

Members of the Undergraduate Education Committee will receive the candidates' essays- the names and student IDs will be masked. Committee members will be asked to rank the candidates. The ranks will be tabulated by the Senior Administrative Coordinator, and the award will be given to the candidate with the highest average rank.

Email to Graduate students:

The Graduate & Post-Graduate Education Committee will be accepting applications for the Graduate Research award.

This award will be presented to a Graduate student that has demonstrated great research abilities throughout the year. Students from all years can submit their self-nomination.

If you would like to apply for this award, please send the following to office.microimm@mcgill.ca:

One-page document explaining your involvement in the field of your research. Include:

- Publications
- Research awards received
- Fellowships
- Presentations at conferences

Requirements: max 1 page, 12 font, Times New Roman, double spaced.

Format: Word document

The subject of your email must be "Application for the 2021 Graduate Research Award"

Submission Deadline: Monday, April 5 2021 11:59pm