

ORGANIZING NON-FORMAL LEARNING

MIIE | WE BRING MCGILL TO YOU

The McGill International Institute of Education (MIIE) is a global learning classroom rich in its diversity and flexible in its accessibility. MIIE offers Professional Development Certificate in Global Trends in Education upon completion of a set number of courses and custom-designed curricula, programs, and courses, each tailored to your needs and objectives.

This course focuses on policies and structures for non-formal learning systems such as those found in community development, voluntary organizations and the private sector. Focuses on the role of the non-formal leader and informal authority in organizations.

OBJECTIVES

- Develop a comprehensive and systematic understanding of the historical and political underpinnings, key concepts, and spheres of practice embedded in the social economy and civil society
- Able to build and manage effective projects, organizations, enterprises and networks
- Able to demonstrate initiative, leadership, and originality in identifying challenges and opportunities for organizations and the broader social economy
- Able to understand key global trends, challenges, threats and opportunities communities face and strategies to address them.
- Able to engage in a community-based approach to social change and social justice

TARGET AUDIENCE

Health Professionals Interested in or Practicing Leadership

COURSE DURATION

35-40
hours

McGill Faculty of Education
3700 McTavish, Montreal
QC, Canada H3A 1Y2

miie.education@mcgill.ca

mcgill.ca/miie