

ROLE OF THE LEADER

MIIIE | WE BRING MCGILL TO YOU

The McGill International Institute of Education (MIIIE) is a global learning classroom rich in its diversity and flexible in its accessibility. MIIIE offers Professional Development Certificate in Global Trends in Education upon completion of a set number of courses and custom-designed curricula, programs, and courses, each tailored to your needs and objectives.

This course explores the roles, expectations and skills related to the task of the educational leader and the implications for school climate and effectiveness. Students will discuss technical, interpersonal, and inspirational facets of being an educational leader in their respective settings.

OBJECTIVES

- Draw on self-reflective experience and integrate it with their learning about theoretical concepts to show their personal learning in relation to leadership practice
- Assess their own strengths and weaknesses and reflect on their own learning and the contributions they can make in the development of others
- Demonstrate an increase in emotional intelligence when interacting with team members
- Demonstrate their understanding of how global and organizational contexts affect the skills and competencies demanded of leaders, and therefore leadership practice.
