'French Canada's Impact in the First World War' a lecture by Dr. Desmond Morton

Join us on September 14th as we host a special event in honour of Dr. Desmond Morton, Hiram Mills Emeritus Professor and Founding Director of the McGill Institute for the Study of Canada (1994-2001).

Accompanied by several distinguished speakers, Professor Morton will present a lecture entitled "French Canada's Impact in the First World War". The event, which will be followed by a Vin d'honneur, will simultaneously celebrate Professor Morton's invaluable contributions to Canadian Studies, as well as his 80th birthday.

This lecture, like most MISC events, will be free and open to the public.

RSVPs are recommended:
