The Joseph and Sandra Rotman Prize for Student Excellence in Public Policy Innovation

The Joseph and Sandra Rotman Prize for Student Excellence in Public Policy Innovation, valued at $500, was established in 2003 by Heather Munroe-Blum, Leonard Solomon Blum and by McGill University, in honour of Joseph and Sandra Rotman. It is awarded by the McGill Institute for the Study of Canada to a graduate student in the Faculty of Arts whose Masters or Doctoral thesis was successfully defended or examined in the current academic year and is judged to have made a distinctive contribution to the understanding or conduct of public policy in Canada.

Required Documents

1. The completed nomination form signed by the Applicant and the Chair or Graduate Program Director of the Department at McGill where the applicant is registered;
2. One recent letter of recommendation (original or certified copy);
3. Description of the applicant's thesis (maximum 3 pages);
4. Digital copies of official or certified copies (stamped and signed by the departmental representative) of all undergraduate and graduate transcripts, except for McGill transcripts, which may be informal. If originating from the department, all should be sent directly by the departmental representative;
