“O! Kosmos”
Listening to the music of the spheres
November 29, Pollack Hall, 7:30 p.m.

For immediate release

Montreal, November 22, 2012 – A multi-media journey through space and time, unraveling the links between music and astronomy, from Greek Antiquity to the 21st century.

A capella music by Guillaume de Machaut, Josquin des Prés, Claudio Monteverdi, Samuel Barber, Claude Vivier, and more.

For thousands of years, men have been looking at the Heavens and trying to make sense of what they saw. The idea of cosmic harmony is an enduring one, and music has long been closely entwined with astronomy, embodying the music of the cosmos here on this earth. Come experience an uncommon concert, immersed in narration, music, images and poetry that will transport you far beyond your everyday life, into heavenly spheres.

Narration by Professor John Crawford.

Tickets are $10. The Box Office (514-398-4547) is located at 555 Sherbrooke Street West. Box Office hours are from noon to 6:00 p.m. Monday to Friday and one hour before each concert.

Pollack Hall is located at 555 Sherbrooke Street West.
