

Recommended MUTH and MUSP courses for the first year based on placement exam results

All B.Mus. and L.Mus. programs (except B.Mus. Jazz Performance and B.Mus. Faculty – Jazz concentration)

Scenario 1:

I did not pass Music Theory Fundamentals or any of the musicianship and keyboard proficiency placement exams.

Register for MUTH 150, MUSP 140 & MUSP 170 in fall, and MUTH 151, MUSP 141 & MUSP 171 in winter.

The Theory Area may recommend that you also take MUAR 201: Basic Materials-Western Music concurrently with MUTH 150 if you fail the Music Theory Fundamentals section for the theory placement exam. In this case, MUAR 201 will be exceptionally accepted as an elective.

You should also refer to the online resources recommended by the Theory Area to develop stronger theory fundamentals skills while taking MUTH 150 and MUTH 151:

Scenario 2:

I passed Music Theory Fundamentals, but not MUTH 150. I was also not exempt from MUSP 140, MUSP 141, MUSP 170 & MUSP 171.

Register for MUTH 150, MUSP 140 & MUSP 170 in fall; and MUTH 151, MUSP 141 & MUSP 171 in winter.

Scenario 3:

I passed Music Theory Fundamentals and MUTH 150, but not MUTH 151. I also passed MUSP 140, MUSP 141, MUSP 170 & MUSP 171.

Register for MUTH 151 in winter. You may also register for MUSP 240 in fall and MUSP 241 in winter, or you may take these the following year. If space in 200-level courses is limited, students who have completed all 100-level required courses will have priority registration, and you may need to take electives to maintain a full-time load.

Scenario 4:

I passed all three theory exams (Music Theory Fundamentals, MUTH 150 & 151), as well as MUSP 140, MUSP 141, MUSP 170 & 171.

Register for MUTH 250 & MUSP 240 in fall; and MUTH 251 & MUSP 241 in winter.

Scenario 5:

I passed all three theory exams (Music Theory Fundamentals, MUTH 150 & 151), as well as MUSP 140, MUSP 141, but not MUSP 170 & MUSP 171.

Register for MUSP 170 in fall and MUSP 171 in winter. You should complete MUSP 170 & 171 before taking 200-level MUSP and MUTH courses the following year. You may take electives if needed to maintain a full-time course load.

Scenario 6:

I passed all three theory exams (Music Theory Fundamentals, MUTH 150 & 151), as well as MUSP 170, MUSP 171, but not MUSP 140 & MUSP 141.

Register for MUSP 140 in fall and MUSP 141 in winter. You may also register for MUTH 250 in fall and MUTH 251 in winter. If space in 200-level courses is limited, students who have completed all 100-level required courses will have priority registration, and you may need to take electives to maintain a full-time load.
