JOB DESCRIPTION & OTHER INFORMATION

This intensive clinical nursing experience focuses on the assessment and care of individuals and their families dealing with a critical and potentially life-threatening health event. Students are placed in critical care units throughout the McGill teaching hospital network (e.g. ER, ICU, NICU) based on the availability of units. Details on exact placement areas will be available in early December. This is a clinical instructor-based course for ½ of the students in the course (the other ½ will be placed preceptored).

Role Expectations:

- Teaches and directly supervises a group of students in fulfilling the course objectives, including patient selection and facilitating experiences with critical care patients and their families.
- Supports student learning by assessing the student's learning style and providing the appropriate teaching strategy.
- Provides formative and summative clinical performance assessment to students including documenting the students' learning throughout the course.
- Meets with course coordinators to review course objectives; communicates with the course coordinator about any concerns related to student learning.
- Works with the clinical unit leadership to promote the best student learning experience possible.
- The Clinical Instructor (CI) will supervise and instruct a group of 6 students in critical care clinical settings and help the students make critical links, use their clinical reasoning skills. Using a Strengths-based approach, the CI will teach students who are in their 3rd (final) year of studies to help them integrate their final stage and be prepared to begin their career in nursing.
- Clinical groups will be on the units for four (4) 8-hour shifts per week and may include days, evenings, weekends and/or 12-hour shifts. Clinical instructors may also share groups, depending on their availability (e.g. 2 days per week each). The clinical days are Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays (subject to change). This clinical course is organized into two sections of 6 weeks each. Section 1 runs from January 9-February 23 and March 9-April 16.

Clinical Placement and Hours Details:

- Rotation 1: January 9, 2021 to February 23, 2021 = 192 hours (20 clinical days at 8 hours /day = 160 clinical teaching + remaining hours for orientation and student assessments) – clinical teaching is Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday on days and evenings (8 hour shift) with possibility of 12 hour shifts for less days of the week pending finalization of placements with agencies. Clinical Instructor Orientation on January 5, 2021.
- Rotation 2: March 9, 2021 to April 17, 2021 = 192 hours (20 clinical days at 8 hours /day = 160 clinical teaching + remaining hours for orientation and student assessments) – clinical teaching is Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday on days and evenings (8 hour shift) with possibility of 12 hour shifts for less days of the week pending finalization of placements with agencies. Clinical Instructor Orientation on March 8, 2021.
- Applicants can apply for Rotation 1 or 2 OR Apply for Rotation 1 AND 2
  - **potential for splitting contract between two people.*
