Dr. Zu-hua Gao, the chair of the Department of Pathology at McGill University, was recently invited by the Chinese People's Political Consultative National Committee to attend their 13th Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference (CPPCC) in Beijing. He was one of two from Canada to represent 60 million overseas Chinese. The CPPCC is the most important political and organizational forum for implementing the basic political system of multiparty cooperation and political consultation led by the Communist Party of China, and an important component of China's political system.
