

Anne-Marie Canakis, BSc, MDCM, FRCPC Pediatric Respirologist

Fun facts about me:

I enjoy skiing and sailing with my family and have fun racing competitively in our sailboat.

I love working with children and their families because: Children inspire me, and I feel great satisfaction being able to help them and their families.

HOSPITAL INFORMATION:

Academic appointments:

Assistant Professor, Division of Respiratory Medicine, Department of Pediatrics, Faculty of Medicine, McGill University

Other appointments:

Director of the Bronchopulmonary Dysplasia Home Oxygen Clinic

Director of the Respiratory Syncytial Virus (RSV) prevention Program

Co-Program Director, Pediatric Respirology Subspecialty Training Program, Montreal Children's Hospital

EDUCATION

Undergraduate University

Bachelor of Science (Physiology) McGill University 1991

Medical Degree

McGill University 1995

Residency

McGill University, Pediatrics 1998

Sub-Specialty Residency (previously called Fellowship)

University of Toronto, Hospital for Sick Children, Pediatric Respirology 2000

Fellowship

McGill University, Montreal Children's Hospital, Pediatric Respiratory Medicine Research Fellowship 2002

CLINICAL INTERESTS

Bronchopulmonary Dysplasia and Home oxygen

RESEARCH

Selected publications

Pulmonary Interstitial Glycogenosis: Clinical Presentation and long term follow-up. A-M Canakis, E Cutz, D Manson and H O'Brodovich. The Hospital for Sick Children-University of Toronto. Toronto, Ontario, Canada. AJRCCM 2002, 165:1557-1565.