

Travel Ban and the Impact on Trainees

Please note that our office is aware of your concerns about the travel ban and how it may affect our PEAP trainees scheduled to start on May 4 as well as other visa trainees scheduled to start on July 1. We are currently in consultation with the necessary governing bodies, and we will be posting updates on our website as information becomes available. Thank you for your understanding and patience during this extraordinary time.