

Dear Residents and Fellows,

In the context of continuing efforts to combat the COVID-19 pandemic, as of period 11 McGill University is recalling all Residents and Fellows currently completing inter-university elective rotations. No exceptions are possible at this time.

We know this is can be a disappointing experience and we thank you for your understanding. Our ultimate aim is to ensure your safety as you continue your training. I wish you safe travels as you return home.

Sincerely,

Armand Aalamian,
Associate Dean
Postgraduate Medical Education
McGill University
