

RESEARCH PARTICIPANTS NEEDED

Are you interested in taking part in a research project that explores institutional discourses about language and writing for non-anglophone and non-francophone students in English Colleges in Montreal, Quebec?

The research explores ministerial, College, and Department policy documents for language, writing and assessment in English courses in English CEGEPs. The study seeks to inform local policy documents for language and writing as well as inform pedagogical and professional development in Quebec CEGEPs.

To be a participant, you must:

currently work as an English teacher at an English CEGEP

have at least 2-5 years of teaching experience

Your participation will take approximately an hour and you will be interviewed face-to-face. Your identity will remain confidential and the CEGEP at which you teach will not be identified in my study.

The study will take place between January 2020 and April 2020 at a date and time that is convenient for you.

If you are interested in participating in the study, please contact Maria Chiras, the principal investigator, at maria.chiras@mail.mcgill.ca. You will receive an email with more information and details about the interview process.

This project has been approved by McGill's Ethics Research Board (file# 19-11-006) and is under the supervision of Dr. Angelica Galante, angelica.galante@mcgill.ca
