

McGill
DISE Research:
Talks

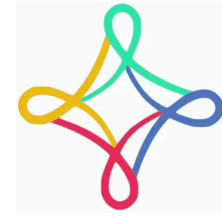

BILD Research Group

Growing Up with Languages: Implications for Multilingual Education

Date: March 25, 2021

Time: 11am / EST, Montréal

Language of presentation: Indian English

Delivery: via Zoom

All attendee must register to receive the Zoom link

Dr. Ajit Mohanty
Jawaharlal Nehru University

A former Professor and ICSSR National Fellow, Jawaharlal Nehru University, Ajit Mohanty was a Killam Scholar, University of Alberta and Fulbright Professor at Columbia University. His publications include The Multilingual Reality: Living with Languages (2019, Multilingual Matters). He is a Fellow of the Association of Psychological Science, USA and a Fellow and Past-President of the National Academy of Psychology, India. Mohanty developed Multilingual Education Policy for Nepal and Odisha (India)