

C P D e c a d e s

8:45 – 09:00 REGISTRATION

Location: Ballroom, Thomson House

9:00 – 10:20 WELCOME & OPENING REMARKS

Welcome

Sarah Brauner-Otto | CPD Director, Sociology McGill

Demography and population studies in Canada – From the 1960s to the 2020s

Céline Le Bourdais | Sociology, McGill University

Training population researchers to better support decision-making

Amélie Quesnel-Vallée | Sociology & Epidemiology, McGill University

10:20– 12:30 MCGILL CPD RESEARCH

Energy poverty: an overlooked social determinant of health in Canada?

Mylène Riva | Geography & IHSP, McGill

Economics of happiness for policy-making: Premise and promise

Chris Barrington-Leigh | IHSP & Bieler School of Environment, McGill

Child marriage in North America: Implications for policy and public health

Alissa Koski | Epidemiology & IHSP, McGill

Using lab experiments to measure beliefs about gender norms: Evidence from Paraguay

Sonia Laszlo | Economics, McGill

Harnessing the power of Google searches to understand dynamics of intimate partner violence

Luca Maria Pesando | Sociology, McGill

12:30 – 13:30 LUNCH BREAK

13:30 – 14:10 FUTURE OF DEMOGRAPHIC DATA IN CANADA

Laurent Martel | Director, Demography Division, Statistics Canada

14:10 – 15:50 RESEARCH PRESENTATIONS

The intergenerational transmission of socioeconomic status and intragenerational income mobility over the early adult life course of Canadian men and women

Xavier St-Denis | INRS, Centre Urbanisation Culture Société

Climate change-related demographic and health research: Data and approaches

Audrey Dorélien | Humphrey School of Public Affairs & Minnesota Population Centre, University of Minnesota

Ongoing and emerging challenges in the analysis of census data: Implications for our understanding of society

Alexis Santos | Human Development and Family Studies & Demography, Pennsylvania State University

15:50 – 17:00 FUTURE OF DEMOGRAPHY PANEL

Shelley Clark | Department Chair, Sociology, McGill

with/ Audrey Dorélien, Luca Maria Pesando, Alexis Santos, Xavier St-Denis

17:00 – 17:30 CLOSING REMARKS

Population studies after the population

Benoît Laplante | INRS, Centre Urbanisation Culture Société

WWW.MCGILL.CA/POPCENTRE/EVENTS/CONFERENCES