

Psychology Program Checklist
Bachelor of Science - Liberal Program
Core Science Component (Psychology) plus a minor

Program Prerequisite: PSYC 100. The department recommends this course be taken in U1 if equivalent courses were not previously completed through advanced standing credits. This course will be counted as electives or foundation requirements when completed at McGill (consult a Faculty of Science Advisor).

Core Science Component: (45 credits)

credits		If equivalent completed at CEGEP, replaced with: PSYC _____
3	Statistics (required): PSYC 204 _____
9	Select 3 from PSYC 211, 212, 213, 215: PSYC _____	PSYC _____ PSYC _____
12	List A (6 credits): PSYC _____	List B (6 credits): PSYC _____
	PSYC _____	PSYC _____
15	Psychology 300 level or above: PSYC _____	PSYC _____ PSYC _____
	PSYC _____	PSYC _____
6	Psychology 400/500 level: PSYC _____	PSYC _____

Minor (18 or 24 credits) Program: _____

18	_____	_____	_____	_____
(or 24)	(_____)	(_____)

Elective Courses (27 or 21 credits, depending on minor)

	_____	_____
27	_____	_____
(or 21)	_____	_____
	_____	_____
Total credits:	_____
120

Foundation Year (U0) Students or Students with Advanced Standing Credits: 30 credits total
 Students who are admitted as U0 must complete foundation course requirements.

If you have been admitted with less than 30 advanced standing credits, please consult a Faculty of Science Advisor.

To earn a B.Sc. degree, students must complete 120 credits.

Science students majoring in psychology can find additional info about Psych department requirements by visiting <https://www.mcgill.ca/psychology/undergraduate/program-s-study/bachelor-science-bsc>

Psychology Program Checklist
Bachelor of Science - Liberal Program
 Core Science Component (Psychology) plus a major concentration or second CSC

Program Prerequisite: PSYC 100. The department recommends this course be taken in U1 if equivalent courses were not previously completed through advanced standing credits. This course will be counted as electives or foundation requirements when completed at McGill (consult a Faculty of Science Advisor).

Core Science Component: (45 credits)

credits 3	Statistics (required): PSYC 204	If equivalent completed at CEGEP, replaced with: PSYC _____
9	Select 3 from PSYC 211, 212, 213, 215:	PSYC _____	PSYC _____	PSYC _____
12	List A (6 credits): PSYC _____	List B (6 credits): PSYC _____
	PSYC _____	PSYC _____
15	Psychology 300 level or above: PSYC _____	PSYC _____	PSYC _____
	PSYC _____	PSYC _____
6	Psychology 400/500 level:	PSYC _____	PSYC _____

Major Concentration or CSC (36 or 45 credits) Program: _____

36 (or 45)

Foundation Year (U0) Students or Students with Advanced Standing Credits: 30 credits total

Students who are admitted as U0 must complete foundation course requirements.

If you have been admitted with less than 30 advanced standing credits, please consult a Faculty of Science Advisor.

To earn a B.Sc. degree, students must complete 120 credits.

Elective Courses (9 or 0 credits, depending on above)

(_____) (_____)

Total credits: (_____)

120

Science students majoring in psychology can find additional info about Psych department requirements by visiting <https://www.mcgill.ca/psychology/undergraduate/programs-study/bachelor-science-bsc>