

Postdoctoral Fellowship in Quebec Studies
Université du Québec à Trois-Rivières (UQTR) – McGill University
2011-2012

DESCRIPTION

McGill University and the Université du Québec à Trois-Rivières are pleased to announce the creation of a postdoctoral fellowship in Quebec Studies for the amount of $30 000 ($6000 will be added for a course assignment). The research orientation must be in environmental history.

The fellowship is for a duration of one year, and will be divided between a 6-month stay at McGill University at the Quebec Studies Program (<http://www.mcgill.ca/qcst/>) and another 6 months at Université du Québec à Trois-Rivières in association with the Canada Research Chair in Environmental History (http://www.cieq.uqtr.ca/crc_hec/index.html). The fellowship must be completed during the academic year 2011-2012.

Eligibility

A candidate must:

Have earned a doctorate before the beginning of the Fellowship.

Have submitted a post-doctoral fellowship application at SSHRC or at FQRSC for the year 2011-2012. A candidate can not cumulate both fellowships.

Teach an undergraduate course (in English) at McGill University and participate in the research activities of both the CRC in the Environmental History and the Quebec Studies Program. The Fellow will be provided with office space at both McGill and UQTR.

How to apply:

Submit a recent C.V. as well as two letters of recommendation from two university professors.

Submit a research project on the environmental history of Quebec. The project must include research objectives, question and plan, as well as a short bibliography.

Application Deadline : November 30, 2010.

Please send your complete fellowship application to

Mr Stéphan Gervais
Quebec Studies Coordinator
Quebec Studies Program
McGill University
840 Doctor-Penfield Avenue, Room 332
Montreal, Quebec Canada H3A 1A4

All applications will be peer-reviewed and evaluated by an ad hoc committee of Quebec Studies professors from both universities. Applicants will be notified of the decision by April 2011.

Start of the Fellowship: Between July 1st and August 31st 2011.
