

McGill

Quebec
Studies

Études
québécoises

Internship Offer-Open to Faculty of Arts students Youth in Motion

Spring-Summer 2023

Application deadline: April 10, 2023

Location: Montreal
Internship Offer

Youth in Motion

Mission: Youth in Motion's mission is to empower its teenagers to become successful learners, make positive informed life choices and reach their full potential.

Project description: Working closely with the Director, Michael P. Farkas, and the program coordinator, the student intern will be actively involved with teenagers of Little Burgundy in Montreal in order to help Youth in Motion achieve its mission.

Task description:

- Welcoming, integrating and engaging children and youth aged 12-17 years;
- Develop, implement and facilitate group activities;
- Inform and educate the teenagers on various issues;
- Support, listen and accompany young people;
- Provide administrative support for various tasks within the organization.

Requirements

Initiative, autonomy, active listening, open-mindedness, good judgment and professionalism

Profile and Skills

- Undergraduate student in Anthropology, History, Political Science, Social Science, Community Development, Social Work, or any other relevant field of study
- Strong interest in Civic Engagement of Youth, Political Participation and Democratic Issues
- Ability to work with diverse individuals and groups
- Fluency in English required. Knowledge of French is an important asset
- Effective communication skills including verbal and written skills
- Excellent problem-solving skills, creativity and ability to engage various teams and work in a team environment

Financial compensation from the McGill Internship Office

$3,150 issued by the Internship Office of the Faculty of Arts as an award for an internship

Total hours of involvement

210 hours

Work schedule and beginning and end of internship

To be determined jointly with the intern and the person responsible for the supervision of the internship;

Start and end date: Between the 1st week of May and Mid August

Workplace

Youth in Motion and BUMP in Little Burgundy.

Eligibility and documents required to apply:

- McGill faculty of Arts faculty student (B.A., B.A & Sc., BSW, B.Th.) enrolled full-time in the during the Winter 2023 semester.
- Must be enrolled at McGill in the Fall of 2023;
- Minimum CGPA of 2.7
- A current CV;
- A letter of motivation;
- Students must fulfill Faculty of Arts requirements as outlined in the Handbook for Interns <https://www.mcgill.ca/arts-internships/resources>
- Proof of medical insurance for duration of internship

A priority will be given to students who decide to include and to complete the Minor in Quebec Studies and Community Engaged Learning (18 credits) or are already enrolled in the Minor in Quebec Studies and Community Engaged Learning

Final selection of the application must be approved by Youth in Motion.

Priority will be given to students who decide to include and to complete the Minor in Quebec Studies and Community Engaged Learning (18 credits) or are already enrolled in the Minor in Quebec Studies and Community Engaged Learning

Application deadline: April 10, 2023

Zoom Interviews for selected candidates on April 12 et April 13 2023

If selected for an interview, students will be informed by April 11th 2023

To apply: Students must send all documents to the following two addresses:

Pascal Brissette Director, Quebec Studies Program

Pascal.brissette@mcgill.ca

Mr. Stéphan Gervais, Scientific Coordinator of Quebec Studies, Quebec Studies Program

stephan.gervais@mcgill.ca