

McGill

School of Religious Studies

École
d'études religieuses

The 2023 Birks Lectures

18–19 September, 5:30 pm

Birks Memorial Chapel

Reception to follow Monday's lecture

Graduate seminar at 2:30 pm on Tuesday

Thomas Joseph White, O.P.

Rector Magnificus, Pontifical University of Saint Thomas Aquinas, Rome

Fr. White (D.Phil., Oxon), Rettore of the Angelicum, is also founding director of the Thomistic Institute, co-editor of Nova et Vetera, Distinguished Scholar of the McDonald Agape Foundation, and an active member of The Hillbilly Thomists bluegrass band. Among his recent writings are a theological commentary on Exodus, an introduction to Catholicism, and a new book on the nature and mystery of the one God.

Lecture 1 On the Trinity: The Human Drive for Ultimate Explanations and the Intellectual Search for the Presence of God

Lecture 2 Chalcedonian Christology and Philosophical Metaphysics

McGill

School of
Religious Studies

École
d'études religieuses

Additional event:

Bluegrass at the Birks

Monday 4:15–5:00 SCR (Birks 100)

Leo Lepore & friends with fr Thomas Joseph White
